SCHEDULE OF WORK

FOR THE

Primary and Grammar Grades.

July 28, 1898.

The Board of Education has resolved that the Course of Study for the year 1897 and 1898 be continued.

FIRST YEAR (OR GRADE).

Oral Language.—Relate or read stories illustrating kindness, gentleness, unselfishness, truthfulness, honesty, loyalty; natural history and geographical stories, etc.; lead the children to reproduce them, cultivating a ready and correct use of simple sentences; names of parts of body; care of body.

Written Language.—Copy simple exercises from the board and from the book to learn to capitalize, punctuate and spell by imitation.

Reading.—From blackboard and chart; first 33 lessons in State First Reader (Revised), teachers to read preface.

Spelling.—Write 50 ordinary words, correctly, in short, easy sentences.

Numbers.—Develop objectively all numbers from 1 to 10; counting and writing numbers from 1 to 50; use numeral frame and objects, such as pebbles, beans and grains of corn; 4 gills=1 pint, 2 pints=1 quart, 4 quarts=1 gallon, objectively; (secure the measures from the storeroom, through your Principal); 12 inches=1 foot (secure also a rule); 2 nickles=1 dime, 10 dimes=1 dollar, two halves=1 dollar, four quarters=1 dollar. Grube optional and omit exercise 8, p. 43, Course for 1897-98.

Writing.—California Vertical, No. 1, in hands of teacher; vertical to be used by the teacher in all school work; pupil to copy from blackboard and reader, and be taught from instructions in Writing Book, No. 1. A bad habit formed here is likely to show through life.

Drawing.—Use of Prang Models according to Manual.

Music.—Choice songs for children; consult Chart A, Natural Music System; training on the scale and tone work. This work must be done with the individual pupil to make the work really effective. Too much reliance is often placed in concert work.

SECOND YEAR (OR GRADE).

Oral Language.—Reproduction of stories, as in the first year, with same object; cardinal points, seasons, night and day, etc.; organs of body; senses.

Written Language.—Abbreviations: Mr., Mrs., st., days of the week, names of the months, date, teacher's name, child's name and address; copy from reader. Sentence-making insisted upon. Proper use of words in brief sentences to take the place of defining. Dictation and correction of common errors.

Reading.—State First Reader completed; memorizing and reciting; one or more sets of supplementary readers.

Spelling.—Oral and written from reader.

Arithmetic.—Numbers written to 100; study numbers from 1 to 20; Roman to XXV; State Primary Number Lessons in hands of teacher, to 50; learn signs, and drill on combinations, preparatory to column adding; only common fractions and decimals on pages 47 to 51, inclusive, (Course of Study, 1897-98).

Writing.—California Vertical Book, No. 1; accept nothing but careful work; see right foundation laid.

Music.—Same as for First Grade.

Drawing.—Use of Prang Models in accordance with Manual.

Humane Education.—Heart Culture, Part I.

THIRD YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—Second Reader (State Revised), begun and completed; at least one set of supplementary readers. Memorizing and reciting.

Spelling.—Words at the head of each reading lesson.

Language.—State Lessons in Language, first 34 lessons. Composition begun; simple letters. Proper use of words in brief sentences to take the place of defining. Dictation and correction of common errors.

Arithmetic.—Write numbers to 1000; Roman numerals to L; study objectively pt., qt., gal.; in., ft., yd.; da., wk., mo.; doz.; coins. Constant drill in subtraction; multiplication and division through 7's. Problems embodying tables, and only one primary principle. State Primary Number Lessons. Add and subtract by 2's, 3's, 4's, 5's, 6's, to 50. Comprehension of $\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{1}{3}$, $\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{1}{6}$. Add 10 numbers of 3 figures each.

Geography.—Draw plan of school room and locate objects with reference to points of compass. Study such natural features as are in sight, as mountains, hills, bay, ocean, islands, etc. Local geography, from bay counties, and rough map drawing of same; observation of climate; evaporation, condensation in cloud, mist, fog; frost, rain, hail; influence of the sun; simple talks on manufactures of San Francisco, and natural products of the State; city's limits, and five important cities of the State.

Music.—Same as for First and Second Grades.

Writing.—California Vertical Book No. 2; accept nothing but exact work, according to principles. Follow the practice work.

Humane Education.—Heart Culture, Part II.

Rules of Health.—Simple talks. (State Physiology in hands of teacher).

Drawing.—Book 1, Prang Complete Course, teacher following Manual, Part 1.

FOURTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—State Third Reader (Revised), teacher to read preface; memorizing and reciting. Omit botanical lessons. Sentence-making, illustrating meanings of words.

Spelling.—Words at beginning and at end of reading lessons, from geography and other text-books.

Arithmetic.—Write numbers to 1,000,000. Roman numerals to C. Simple bills applying U. S. Money. Drill on tables and problems involving not more than two primary principles. State Advanced Arithmetic to page 62, inclusive, (book in hands of teacher). Thoroughly review multiplication table to 12×12 , and division table to $144 \div 12$; at least three times a week, addition of twelve numbers of three figures each; accuracy, then rapidity; definitions of sum, difference, minuend, subtrahend, multiplicand, multiplier, dividend, divisor, quotient, remainder; review length, weight, liquid capacity, time.

Mental Arithmetic.—Bailey's to page 35, inclusive, except page 13; accuracy, speed, (book in hands of teacher). Parallel written arithmetic.

Language, Oral and Written.—State Lessons in Language, lessons 35 to 84, inclusive; letters; reproductions from stories; all compositions brief and accurate. Proper use of words in brief sentences to take place of defining. Dictation and correction of common errors.

Geography.—State Elementary to page 34. Illustrate by, and lay special stress on, reference to local geographical features. Emphasize the following topics: Earth as a whole—shape, motions, seasons, zones, products of each zone; habits, occupations, etc., of the people; general ideas of hemispheres, continents, oceans, grand divisions; United States as a whole; California; San Francisco; rough maps of California.

Writing.—California Vertical No. 3; accuracy; practice ovals with each lesson.

Music.—Natural Music Primer to page 42. Observe suggestions given for First, Second and Third Grades.

Drawing.—Book 3, Prang Complete Course, teacher using Manual, Part 2.

Humane Education.—Heart Culture, Part III.

Rules of Health.—State Physiology in hands of teacher.

FIFTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—State Fourth Reader (Revised) to lesson 26 page 60, teacher to carry out design expressed in the preface and to read pages 1 to 20, back of book; weekly practice on vocal training, pages X to XV; follow memorizing and notes at end of lessons; pupils to read piece silently, teacher making meanings clear; a few pupils may then be tried on bringing out the thought and the literary beauties; failing, the teacher reads entire piece in the best manner, conversing with the class on the treasures in it; no piece will be found without them; pursue the usual routine of reading, analysis, spelling and defining, by pupils. This book is one of the few readers calculated to develop a love and critical taste for good literature. A class of even the little ones of the fifth grade that does not pass to the sixth grade with fond expectations of the pursuit of this book to the close has not accomplished all that is desired. In addition to foregoing requirements, one set of supplemental readers.

Spelling.—From reader and all other text-books.

Language and Composition.—State Lessons in Language, page 67 to lesson 7, page 88, and 28 lessons in Part II, omitting phrases, clauses, and other parts of speech except nouns and verbs. Composition work, including excuses, invitations, letter writing. Close attention to suggestions in Language Book. Proper use of words in brief sentences to take the place of defining. Dictation and correction of common errors.

Arithmetic.—State Advanced. Review from beginning; and pages 53 to 89, omitting pages 70 to 71. U. S. Money, in bills. Review of tables.

Mental Arithmetic.—Bailey, pages 35 to 56, inclusive.

Geography.—State Elementary, pages 34 to 88, to British America; map questions, and recitation questions in "Description."

History.—From supplementary or library books; Columbus, Da Gama, Vespucci, Cortez, Pizzaro, Balboa, Magellan; Cabots, De Leon, Smith, Hudson, the Pilgrims.

Rules of Health.—Simple talks, from the State Physiology, on the importance of exercise, and the evils of over and insufficient exercise. Some of the bad effects of alcohol and tobacco. (State Physiology in hands of teacher.)

Writing.—California Vertical, No. 4.

Music.—Natural Music Primer, pages 42 to 116.

Drawing.—Book 5, Prang Complete Course, teacher following Manual, Part 3.

Humane Education.—Heart Culture, Part IV.

SIXTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—State Fourth Reader, Lessons 27 to 50, both inclusive. See instructions for Fifth Grade work. Supplementary Reading.

Spelling, Defining and Sentence Making.—State Speller, first 75 lessons, and from reader and other text-books.

Word Analysis.—Anglo-Saxon suffixes and prefixes exemplified, and Latin suffixes, pages 12 to 19.

Grammar and Composition.—State Advanced Grammar to lesson 85, teacher to read the preface. More composition work.

Written Arithmetic, (State Advanced).—Review Fifth Grade work in fractions. Take pages 89 to 99 inclusive, pages 102 to 114, inclusive; pages 119 to 126, Exercise 175; pages 129 and 130; take Addition and Time, as per "Instructions to Teachers," pages 55 and 56, Course of Study, 1897-98.

Mental Arithmetic, (Bailey).—Pages 57 to 65, inclusive; page 81 and ordinary long measure table on 82; pages 84-85; counting and paper tables on 86.

Geography.—State Elementary, pages 88 to 130, inclusive. Bound the States and Territories of the Union, and the groups.

History.—Harr Wagner's Pacific Coast History Stories (in hands of teacher).

Writing.—California Vertical, No. 5.

Health Lessons.—(State text-book in hands of teacher.) Habits to avoid; exercise; baths; water; sleep; alcohol, use; alcohol, abuse; tobacco, use; tobacco, abuse; air, effects of; ventilation; food—changed by seasons.

Drawing.—Book 6, Prang Complete Course, teacher following Manual, Part 3.

Music.—Second Natural Music Reader.

SEVENTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—State Fourth Reader (Revised), completed from page 123, teacher to be governed by instructions in Fifth Grade. Work by lessons 248 to 254, State Grammar.

Spelling, Defining and Sentence-Making.—State Speller, from Lesson 75 to Lesson 183; from reader and other text-books.

Word Analysis.—Swinton's New; Latin suffixes and prefixes, and pages 23 to 30.

Grammar and Composition.—State Advanced—Lessons 85 to 155, teacher to read preface. Letter-writing and descriptive composition.

Written Arithmetic.—State Advanced. Review factors and multiples, pages 91 to 146, omitting pages 116, 117 and 118, and Surveyor's Long and Square measure. Teach use of aliquot parts of 10, 100, 1000; Time, Addition, pages 56, 60, 61, Course of Study, 1897-98.

Mental Arithmetic.—Bailey, pages 81-100, both inclusive, omitting apothecaries' fluid measure, and circular measure.

Geography.—State Advanced to page 40, omitting "Geography of Home Place" and School District, pages 9 and 10.

History.—State United States History to page 98, year 1750. "Struggle for Interior."

Civil Government.—State text-book in hands of teacher to Part III.

SCHEDULE OF WORK

FOR THE

By Direction of the Board of Education, July 26, 1899.

[One-fourth of the work to be completed as near as topics permit, in each quarter of the year, to facilitate transferring of pupils, and uniform examinations. Written examinations by Board or Principals semi-annually. All subjects not included in written examinations, to be passed upon by Department of Supervision, results to take part in general standing.]

Day Schools.

FIRST YEAR (OR GRADE).

Oral Language.—Relate or read stories illustrating kindness, gentleness, unselfishness, truthfulness, honesty, patriotism; talks from Longfellow's Hiawatha, especially Hiawatha's childhood, etc.; on Thanksgiving Day, Washington's Birthday, Decoration Day; natural history and geography stories, etc.; direction, measurements; observation of local geographical features; consult pp. 5, 6, 7, State Elementary Geography; encourage children to reproduce stories, cultivating a ready and correct use of simple sentences; correction of common errors; names of parts of the body; care of body.

Written Language.—Copy simple exercises from the board and from the book to learn to capitalize, punctuate, and spell by imitation. Require each pupil to write his name, age, and residence, in complete sentences. Teach the writing of simple sentences conveying information;—much exercise in this.

Reading.—From blackboard, chart, and card; first 33 lessons in State First Reader (Revised) (teachers to read preface), and one-half of a supplementary primer; Bass's, Wooster's and Cyr's Primers in hands of teacher.

Spelling.—Write 50 ordinary words, correctly, in short, easy sentences.

Numbers.—Develop addition and subtraction (singly and by groups); vary addition by groups, as: 4, 8, 12, 16, or, 4, 6, 10, 12, 16, objectively of numbers from 1 to 16; counting and writing numbers (singly and by groups) from 1 to 50; use numeral frame and objects, such as pebbles, beans, and grains of corn; 2 pints equal 1 quart, 4 quarts equal 1 gallon, objectively (secure the measures from the storeroom, through your Principal); 12 inches equal 1 foot (secure also a rule), 2 nickles equal 1 dime, 10 dimes equal 1 dollar, 2 halves equal 1 dollar, 4 quarters equal 1 dollar. Grube optional.

Writing.—Vertical to be used by the teacher in all school work; pupil to copy from blackboard and reader. A bad habit formed here is likely to show through life. Preceding all lessons, five minutes practice on exercises usually found in writing-books. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical Penmanship. Book I, in hands of teacher.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers.

Music.—See Instructions to Teachers.

Physical Culture.—See Instructions to Teachers.

SECOND YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—Complete the State First Reader and the supplementary book half read in the first grade. Also read two supplementary first readers or their equivalent; memorizing and reciting.

Spelling.—Oral and written.

Oral Language.—Reproduction of stories, as in the first year, with same object; talks on Columbus, National holidays, Longfellow's birthday; cardinal points, seasons, night and day, sun as a source of light and heat, the moon, north star, etc.; land and water; measurements of school room and school building; continuation of general direction and measurement; organs of body; senses; consult pp. 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, State Elementary Geography.

Written Language.—Abbreviations: Mr., Mrs., st., days of the week, names of the months; date, teacher's name, child's name and address. Copy from reader for exercise.

Proper use of words in brief sentences to take the place of defining; teach telling and question sentences. Dictation and correction of common errors in capitalizing, spelling, and punctuating. Memorize simple poetic selections.

Arithmetic.—Numbers written to 100; the four fundamental operations in numbers from 1 to 20; Roman to XXV; State Primary Number Lessons, in hands of teacher, to 50; learn signs, and drill on combinations, preparatory to column adding; teach the place value of units, tens, etc.; counting by 2's, 3's, 4's, and the like; addition and subtraction extended by use of objects and by analogy, as: 3, 13, 23; 8, 18, 28, and so on to 100.

Writing.—Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical Book I. For exercise, see instructions to Third Grade.

Drawing.—See Instructions to Teachers.

Music.—See Instructions to Teachers.

Physical Culture.—See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—By special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

Health Lessons.—Simple talks on health. State Physiology in hands of teacher.

Humane Education.—Page's Humane Education, Part I, in hands of teacher. Form Bands of Mercy as per Instructions.

THIRD GRADE (OR YEAR).

Reading.—Second Reader (State Revised), begun and completed; at least two different supplementary second readers, or their equivalent. Memorizing and reciting. See instructions to Fifth Grade, this schedule.

Spelling.—Words at the head of each reading lesson.

Language.—State Lessons in Language, first 40 lessons. Composition begun; simple letters. Proper use of words in brief sentences to take the place of defining. Dictation and correction of common errors emphasized. Composition or letter writing by pupils once in two weeks. For composition place upon the board words, such as early, James, Jane, boat, dig, bay, morning, lunch, fish, pleasant, noon, show, string, sun, west, horse, good time, and have pupils use them in a story. Compositions or letters to be corrected by teacher and returned to pupil to be written correctly, teacher to collect again for inspection. Continue exercises in telling and question sentences. Add commanding sentences.

Arithmetic.—Write numbers to 10,000; counting by 5's, 6's, etc.; Roman numerals to L; study objectively pt., qt., gal.; in., ft., yd.; da., wk., mo.; doz.; coins. Constant drill in subtraction; multiplication and division through 7's. Problems embodying tables, and only one primary principle. State Primary Number Lessons to Lesson 86. Add and subtract by 2's, 3's, 4's, 5's, 6's, to 100. Comprehension of $\frac{1}{2}$, 1-3, $\frac{1}{4}$, 1-6. Add 10 numbers of 3 figures each.

United States money with the decimal point.

Simple mental problems in reduction of compound numbers, involving one step and using the measures, thus: 2 yds., 3 yds., 2 yds. 1 ft., 3 yds. 2 ft. are how many feet? 5 gallons are how many qts? 6 gallons, 3 qts. are how many qts? 10 ft. are how many yards? Practice addition.

Geography.—Draw plan of school room and locate objects with reference to points of compass. Study such natural features as are in sight—mountains, hills, bay, ocean, islands, etc. Local geography from bay counties, and rough map drawing of same; observation of climate; evaporation, condensation in cloud, mist, fog, frost, rain, hail; influence of the sun; simple talks on manufactures of San Francisco, and natural products of the State; city's limits, and five important cities of the State. State Elementary Geography in hands of teacher, first 22 pages, as far as "Climate."

Nature Study.—Reference, the Geography.

History.—Introduce local history with local geography. Suggested topics: California Indians, Founding of the Missions, The Presidio, Coming of the Americans, etc. Reference: Harr Wagner's Pacific Coast History Stories, Hittell's Brief History of California. Stories of the Pilgrims, lives of Washington, Franklin, Lincoln.

Writing.—Practice vertical. Books to be designated later in the year. Preceding all lessons, five minutes' practice on right and left ovals and other exercises usually found on the inside of covers to writing books. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical, Book II.

Drawing.—Under direction of special teacher. See Instructions to Teachers.

Music.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Physical Culture.—Under direction of special teacher. See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—By special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

Health Lessons.—Simple talks on health. State Physiology in hands of teachers.

Humane Education.—Page's Humane Education, Part II, in hands of teachers. Form Bands of Mercy as per Instructions.

FOURTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—State Third Reader (Revised), teacher to read preface; memorizing and reciting. See instructions for Fifth Grade. Emphasize indicated elocutionary drill-work. Sentence-making, illustrating meanings of words. A supplementary reader of equal grade to State Third Reader.

Spelling.—Words at beginning and end of reading lessons, and following list from the geography: Vapor, climate, torrid, frigid, temperate, zone, vegetation, equator, occupation, mining, manufacture, agriculture, commerce, island, plateau, peninsula, isthmus, liquid, meridians, parallels, latitude, Pacific, Atlantic, Arctic, Antarctic, Andes, Indian, Gibraltar, Mediterranean, Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, Sumatra, Java, Borneo, Celebes, Nile, Congo, Caucasian, Mongolian, Malay, Ethiopian, savage, civilized, republics, monarchies, capital, President, despotism, King, Queen, kingdom, Emperor, empire, Alaska, Canada, Mexico, British Columbia, Athabasca, MacKenzie, Saskatchewan, Assiniboia, Manitoba, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, New Foundland, Labrador, Winnipeg, Arkansas (Arkan-saw), Missouri, Mississippi, Ontario, Erie, Huron, Superior, Michigan, Washington, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, Omaha, Cincinnati, Appalachian, Haiti, Halifax, Panama, Concepcion, Flattery, Sitka, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Raleigh, Minneapolis, Topeka, Bismarck, Cheyenne, Baltimore, Louisville, Detroit, Seattle, Portland, Los Angeles, Del Monte, Siskiyou, Modoc, Trinity, Humboldt, Shasta, Lassen, Tehama, Plu-mas, Colusa, Contra Costa, Amador, Calaveras, Tuolumne, Stanislaus, Mono, Inyo, San Luis Obispo, San Bernardino, Ventura, Klamath, Tamalpais.

Language, Oral and Written.—State Lessons in Language, lessons 41 to 79, inclusive; letters or compositions once in two weeks (see instructions to Third Grade); blackboard compositions, teacher selecting one or more to criticise; oral descriptions; reproductions from stories; all compositions brief. Proper use of words in brief sentences to take place of defining. Dictation and correction of common errors emphasized. Distribute slips of paper, the size of envelopes and have them addressed.

Arithmetic.—Write numbers to 1,000,000. Roman numerals to C. Simple bills applying to U. S. money. Drill on tables and problems involving not more than two primary principles. State Advanced Arithmetic to page 62, inclusive, (book in hand of teacher). Omit general principles of division, pp. 55-56. Thoroughly review multiplication table to 12×12 , and division to 144 divided by 12; at least three times a week, addition of ten numbers of three figures each; accuracy, then rapidity; definitions, of sum, difference, minuend, subtrahend, multiplicand, multiplier, dividend, divisor, quotient, remainder; and in operations, designate same in writing; review length, weight, liquid capacity, time. Practice addition.

Mental Arithmetic.—Bailey's to page 40, inclusive, except page 13; accuracy, speed, (book in hands of teacher). Parallel written arithmetic. Addition and subtraction of simple fractions with the same denominator or with denominators different whose equivalence to the common denominator is easily comprehended. Use measures for this work, as in the development of fractions; e. g.: $\frac{1}{2}$ of a foot equals 6 inches; $1\text{-}3$ of a foot equals 4 inches; 6 inches plus 4 inches equals 10 inches. Since 1 inch equals $1\text{-}12$ of a foot, 10 inches equal ten times $1\text{-}12$, or $10\text{-}12$ of a foot. Four fundamental operations in U. S. money, but no decimal fractions in multiplier or divisor.

Nature Study.—"Pacific Nature Stories," in hands of teacher.

History.—Local history with local geography, orally: The discoverers, etc. Reference: Harr Wagner's Pacific Coast History Stories and Hittell's Brief History of California—Mara Pratt's Stories of Colonial Children; Stories of Great Americans for Little Americans, by Eggleston.

Writing.—Practice vertical. For exercise, see instructions to Third Grade. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical Book III.

Drawing.—Under direction of special teacher. See Instructions to Teachers. Prang's Elementary Course of Instruction, Third Year Book.

Music.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers. Natural Music Primer, through p. 50.

Physical Culture.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—By special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

Health Talks.—Bathing, pure air, proper food. State Physiology, in hands of teachers.

Humane Education.—Page's Humane Education, Part III, in hands of teacher. Form Bands of Mercy, as per Instructions.

FIFTH YEAR (OR GRAD . . .)

Reading.—Fourth Reader (Revised) lesson 23, page 53, teacher to carry out design expressed in the preface and to read pages 1 to 20, back of book; weekly practice on vocal training, pages X to XV; follow memorizing and notes at end of lesson; pupils to read piece silently, teacher making meanings clear; a few pupils may then be tried on bringing out the thought and the literary beauties; failing, the teacher reads entire piece in the best manner, conversing with the class on the treasures in it; reading, analysis, spelling and defining, by pupils. This book is one of the few readers calculated to develop a love and critical taste for good literature. A class of even the little ones of the fifth grade that does not pass to the sixth grade with fond expectations of the pursuit of this book to the close has not accomplished all that is desired. For methods and supplementary reading, see Instructions to Teachers.

Spelling.—From the reader, and the following from the geography: Sierra, Providence, Carolina, boundary,

Appalachian, establish, excellent, access, occupation, quarrying, variety, machinery, principal, especially, locomotive, employment, population, petroleum, frequent, fisheries, countless, rapidly, extensive, turpentine, immense, winterless. prairies, stretch, mountainous, incline, approach, prized, household, moisture, exports, distinguish, interior, populous, seacoast, productions, missions, hydraulic, circumference, gradually, bowlders, debris, quartz, warehouse, peninsula, insurance, Campeachy, Guatemala, Popocatepetl, Caribbean, Honduras, Antilles, Vancouver, Cascade, Greenland, Acapulco, Springfield, Missouri, Bahama.

Language and Composition.—Revised English Grammar (State Series), first 45 lessons, teacher to read the preface. Composition work, including exercises, invitations, letter writing. See instructions to third grade regarding correction of composition work. Dictation, and correction of common errors emphasized. Teach defining by use of dictionary. Use of synonyms as per page 26, emphasizing in composition.

Arithmetic.—State Advanced, reviewed from beginning, and pages 53 to 89, omitting pp. 70-71. U. S. money in bills. Review of tables. Emphasize "General Principles of Division," pp. 55-56.

Mental Arithmetic.—Bailey's, pp. 35-65, inclusive.

Geography.—State Elementary, pp. 34-88, to British America; map questions, and recitation questions in "Description."

Nature Study.—"Nature Stories of the Northwest," Bashford, in hands of teacher.

History.—From supplementary or library books; Columbus, Da Gama, Vespucci, Cortez, Pizarro, Balboa, Magellan, Cabots, De Leon, Smith, Hudson, The Pilgrims. Reference: First Book in American History, Eggleston; Montgomery's Beginner's History of the United States, Local history as in Third Grade. Hittell's Brief History of California, in hands of teachers.

Writing.—Practice vertical. For practice, see instructions to Third Grade. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical, No. IV.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers. Prang's Elementary Course of Art Instruction, Fourth Year Book.

Music.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers. Natural Music Primer, completed from page 50.

Physical Culture.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—By special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

Health Talks.—Simple anatomy; bones; muscular system; skin. Effects of alcohol and tobacco on the human system. State Physiology in hands of teacher.

Humane Education.—Page's Humane Education, Part IV, in hands of teacher. Form Bands of Mercy, as per instructions.

SIXTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—State Fourth Reader, Lessons 23 to 31, both inclusive, and Lessons 65 to 83, both inclusive. See instruction for Fifth Grade work. Emphasize indicated vocal drill. Supplementary reading, suggested in Instructions to Teachers.

Spelling, Defining and Sentence-Making.—State Speller, first 75 lessons, and from reader. Teach defining by use of dictionary.

Grammar and Composition.—State Advanced Grammar to Lesson 85, teacher to read the preface. Composition work, including excuses, invitations, letter-writing. See instructions to Third Grade for correction of compositions. Emphasize dictation and the correction of common errors. Emphasize use of synonyms, page 26.

Written Arithmetic (State Advanced).—Review Fifth Grade work in fractions and general principles of division, pages 55 and 56. Take pages 89 to 98, inclusive, pages 102 to 114, inclusive; pages 119 to 126, Exercise 175; pages 129 and 130, and pages 181, 182, 183; take Addition as per Instructions to Teachers.

Mental Arithmetic (Bailey).—Pages 57 to 76, inclusive; page 81 and ordinary long measure table on 82; pages 84-85; counting and paper tables on 86.

Geography.—State Elementary, pages 88 to 130, inclusive; map questions and recitation questions in descriptions. Bound the States and Territories of the Union, and the groups. Correct the geography to date.

Nature Study.—"Stories of Mother Earth," by H. W. Fairbanks, University of California, in hands of teacher.

History.—Harr Wagner's Pacific Coast History Stories and Hittell's Brief History of California, in hands of teacher.

Writing.—Practice vertical. For practice work, see instructions to Third Grade. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical, Book V.

Music.—Under direction of special teacher. See Instructions to Teachers. Natural Second Music Reader to page 54.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers. Prang's Elementary Course of Art Instruction, Fifth Year Book.

Physical Culture.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

SEVENTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Sewing.—By special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

Health Talks.—Food; mastication and digestion. Effects of alcohol and tobacco on the human system. State Physiology in hands of teacher.

Reading.—State Fourth Reader (Revised), Lessons 32 to 65, teacher to be governed by instructions in Fifth Grade and Instructions to Teachers. Work by Lessons 248 to 254, State Grammar.

Spelling, Defining and Sentence-Making.—State Speller, from Lesson 75 to Lesson 183; from reader and other textbooks.

Word Analysis.—Swinton's New; Latin suffixes and prefixes, and pages 23 to 31 (civis).

Grammar and Composition.—State Advanced—Lessons 85 to 155, teacher to read preface. Letter-writing and descriptive composition. Besides composition work in the grammar, which should be emphasized, brief essays on current events may be added. Compositions should be discussed before the class, corrected and returned for copying. The copies should be collected for inspection.

Arithmetic.—State Advanced. Review factors and multiples; pages 91 to 166, omitting pages 99, 100, 101, 116, 117, 118 and surveyor's long and square measure. Omit stone and brick work, circular measure, longitude and time, reference tables, page 154, and metric system. Study pages 181 to 189, 204-209, inclusive. Practice addition; combinations.

Mental Arithmetic (Bailey).—Pages 79 to 103, inclusive, omitting apothecaries' fluid measure, circular measure and metric system.

Geography.—State Advanced, pages 42-91, inclusive. Map questions to be learned. Omit on page 43 exercises in connection with ocean currents, thermal zones, barometric pressure, rainfall. Correct the geography to date.

History.—State United States History to page 98, year 1750. "Struggle for Interior." Review by topics as far as possible. See Instructions to Teachers. Van Bergen's "Tales of Our New Possessions," in hands of teacher.

Civil Government.—State text-book in hands of teacher to Part III. Dole's "The American Citizen" for reference.

Writing.—Vertical. Practice right and left ovals, and other exercises usually found on the inside of covers to writing books. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical, No. VI.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers. Prang's Elementary Course of Art Instruction, Sixth Year Book.

Music.—Under direction of special teacher. See Instructions to Teachers. Natural Second Music Reader, completed from page 54.

Physical Culture.—Under directions of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—By special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

Hygiene and Physiology.—Effects of alcohol and narcotics upon the human system. Muscles, rest and disease of; importance of exercise and the evils of over and insufficient exercise. Circulation and respiration; necessity for pure air and pure water. Clothing; emergency.

EIGHTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading and Literature.—Brander Matthews' Introduction to American Literature, teacher to follow the prefatory note and introduction; work by Lessons 248 to 254 of State Grammar (Revised). See Instructions to Teachers under "Reading."

Spelling and Defining.—From text-books; State Speller, Lessons, 183 to 300.

Word Analysis.—Swinton's New—Latin prefixes and suffixes, and pages 30 to 65.

Grammar and Composition.—State Grammar (Revised), Lessons 155 to 212. Parsing and analyzing. Narrative and descriptive composition, twice a month. See instructions, Seventh Day.

Arithmetic.—State advanced. Study metric system; stone and brick work; lumber and carpet measure; circular measure; longitude and time; pages 99, 100, 101, 168, 169, 170, 176 to 198, 204 to 220, inclusive. Practice rapid and accurate addition and multiplication.

Mental Arithmetic (Bailey's).—Pages 94 to 123, and pages 132, 136 and 137.

Geography.—State advanced, pages 42 to 92. North America and the United States. Map questions to be learned. Correct geography to date.

History.—U. S. (State), pages 98 to 233. Conclusion of the war of 1812. Review by topics as far as possible as per Instructions to Teachers.

Civil Government.—(State text-book in hands of teacher). Part III to Part V. For reference: Dole's "The American Citizen," and "This Country of Ours," by ex-President Harrison, in the hands of teacher.

Writing.—Business forms. For practice, see instructions to Seventh Grade. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical, Book VII.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers. Prang's Elementary Course of Art Instruction, Seventh Year Book.

Music.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers. Natural Music Book No. 4.

Physical Culture.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—Taught by special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

Hygiene and Physiology.—State Physiology in hands of teacher. Purchase optional with pupil. Effects of alcohol and narcotics on the human system. Pages 151 to 245, "Hygiene."

NINTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading and Literature.—Texts to be designated during the year. See Instructions to Teachers under "Reading," and State Revised Grammar, lessons 248 to 254 inclusive.

Grammar and Composition.—State Grammar (revised), Lesson 183 to completion of book. Much analysis and parsing. Descriptive, biographical and some argumentative composition. Review the book and emphasize indicated rhetorical work.

Spelling.—State Speller; lessons 300 to 408, inclusive, and text books.

Word Analysis.—Swinton; Latin Prefixes and Suffixes, and pages 61 to 104.

Arithmetic.—State Advanced, pages 181 to 260, inclusive. Metric System. Practice addition.

Mental Arithmetic.—Bailey's, pages 94 to 130.

Geography.—State Advanced, pages 92 to 140.

History.—U. S. (State) completed from page 233. Review the entire book by topics, according to Instructions to Teachers. Bring history to date by use of reference works.

Civil Government.—(State Text Book in hands of teacher); part V. For reference, Dole's "The American Citizen" and "This Country of Ours," by Ex-President Harrison, both in hands of teacher.

Book-Keeping.—Bryant & Stratton's Elementary (text book in hands of teacher). Commercial forms. Accurate penmanship. First two sets of Single Entry and first and second set of Double Entry; trial balances.

Writing.—Insist upon practice work; accurate penmanship in all written exercises, especially in book-keeping and business forms. See instructions to Seventh Grade. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical, Book VII.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. Prang's eighth year book.

Music.—Under direction of special teachers. Natural Music Reader No. 4.

Physical Culture.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—Taught by special teacher. Course for eighth grade.

SCHEDULE OF WORK.

THIRD GRADE (OR YEAR).

Reading.—Second Reader (Revised), begun and completed. See instructions to Fifth Grade, Day.

Spelling, Language, Arithmetic, Geography, History, Writing and Health Lessons same as Day.

FOURTH GRADE (OR YEAR).

Reading.—State Third Reader (Revised); sentence-making, illustrating the meaning of words. "Pacific Nature Stories" in hands of teacher; weekly practice on vocal training. Follow instructions under Reading, Fifth Grade, Day; Fourth Reader in hands of teacher.

Spelling.—Words at beginning and end of reading lessons in Third Reader, and the geographical words under Fourth Grade, Day.

Arithmetic.—Advanced State Arithmetic to page 62. Omit pages 55 and 56. Book in hands of teacher. See instructions under Fourth Grade, Day.

Mental Arithmetic.—Constant mental drill on the oral and written exercises in the arithmetic.

Language, Oral and Written.—State Lessons in Language, lessons 41 to 79; letters or composition once in two weeks; reproductions from stories; oral descriptions. Proper use of words in brief sentences to take place of defining. Dictation and correction of common errors See Day instructions.

Geography.—State Elementary, pages 5 to 34, and 46 to 85.

History.—Local history with local geography. Harr Wagner's Pacific Coast History or Hittell's Brief History of California; Great Americans for Little Americans, by Eggleston, all in hands of teacher.

Writing and Health Talks.—Same as Day.

FIFTH GRADE (OR YEAR).

Reading.—Fourth Reader (Revised) to page 53. See instructions under this head, Day.

Spelling.—Same as Day.

Language and Composition.—State Lessons in Language completed. Composition work, including invitations, letter writing, dictation, correction of common errors. Letter or Composition once in two weeks. See instructions under this head, Day. Teach proper use of words in brief, simple sentences.

Arithmetic.—State Advanced (in hands of pupils) to page 89. Much drill on bills, U. S. money, tables.

Mental Arithmetic.—The oral exercises and the shorter and easier examples in the "Written Exercises," State Advanced.

Geography.—Same as Day.

Writing and Health Talks.—Same as Day.

History.—First Book in American History, Eggleston; Hittell's Brief History of California. Books in hands of teacher, or used as supplementary readers.

Writing and Health Tables.—Same as Day.

SIXTH GRADE (OR YEAR).

Reading.—Same as Day.

Spelling, Defining and Sentence-Making.—Same as Day. State Speller in hands of pupils.

Grammar and Composition.—State Advanced Grammar (in hands of pupils) to page 85. See instructions under this head, Day.

Written Arithmetic and Geography.—Same as Day.

Mental Arithmetic.—The oral exercises and shorter examples in Written Exercises, State Advanced.

History.—First Book in American History, Eggleston; Hittell's Brief History of California, both in hands of teacher.

Writing, Health Talks.—Same as Day.

SEVENTH GRADE (OR YEAR).

Reading.—State Fourth Reader (Revised), same as Day.

Spelling, Defining and Sentence-Making.—State Speller, from Lesson 75 to Lesson 183; from reader and other text-books; Latin suffixes, prefixes and roots.

Grammar and Composition.—Same as Day.

Arithmetic.—Same as Day.

Mental Arithmetic.—The Oral Exercises and the shorter examples in Written Exercises, State Advanced.

Geography.—State Advanced, pp. 42-92.

History.—State United States History to page 98, year 1750. See instructions to teachers. Book in hands of pupils.

Writing, Hygiene and Physiology.—Same as Day. State Physiology in hands of teacher.

EIGHTH GRADE (OR YEAR).

Reading.—Brander Mathews' Introduction to American Literature. See instructions under this head, Day.

Spelling and Defining.—State Speller, Lessons 183 to 300. Prefixes, suffixes and roots. Selected lists from text-books.

Grammar and Composition.—State Grammar (Revised), 155 to 212. Parsing and analyzing. Narrative and descriptive composition twice a month. Dictation. See instructions for Composition work, Day.

Arithmetic.—Same as Day.

Mental Arithmetic.—The Oral Exercises and shorter examples in the Written Exercises.

Geography.—State Advanced, pp. 92-140.

INSTRUCTIONS TO TEACHERS.

MUSIC.

By MISS ESTELLE CARPENTER, Head Special Teacher of Music.

"Singing, when well taught, is as important a subject for the school-room as any other branch; and it needs to be taught from the lowest to the highest grade in the ungraded school as in the graded school. It is needed for patriotism, morality, for health. It is needed to make discipline lighter, school attendance more regular, school management easier, study more interesting, and recitation more spirited."

"What the wings are to the bird, what the blossom is to the plant, what the juice is to the fruit, what the eye is to the face, what fervency is to the voice, singing is to the school!"

"In every child there is the germ of the power to appreciate the finest music and to express his appreciation with the voice."

If proper training is begun before the voice is spoiled by bad usage, and before the natural instinct for that which is best has been destroyed, or replaced by the vulgar, the common, or the debasing, in music, every child is capable of being taught to express spontaneously in song the finer emotions—sympathy and love to his fellow-creatures and love to his Creator.

In all undertakings it is best to begin well, and this is particularly true with regard to music. It is impossible to begin too early in childhood to teach that which is pure and high, and to awaken in the child's nature impulses that will stimulate the growth of worthy aspirations, that no room may be left for weeds.

In the selection of songs, therefore, one cannot be too careful, both as to words and music. Go to our best composers and there will be found simple musical airs and suitable words.

More pleasure and profit can be derived from the study of a small painting by a master hand, than can be found from studying a showy picture by an ordinary individual. So, in most all cases, the simple songs of the good composer are sweeter and more helpful than more pretentious selections from the ordinary musician. It is because the master composer thinks and feels at all times musically, and his slightest expression is full of music, while the ordinary composer catches but a glimpse of the wonderful art, and so his productions fall short of true worth. Therefore, in order that the child may be brought in contact with true music, the songs should be selected from the masters.

The songs of Country, Home, Nature and God appeal strongly to the child. Therefore such songs must be selected. They can be found in Children's Songs by Abt; Songs by Gilchrist; arrangement of Songs by in the following collections: "Children's Songs," by Reinecke; "Chil-

Eleanor Smith;" "Songs of Child World," by Jessie Gaynor; books arranged by Wm. Tomlins; "Children's Songs," by Fred Bullard; "Children's Songs," by Frederic Root; "Children's Songs," by Weidlinger; "Children's Songs" by Emerson, and "Children's Songs" arranged by Max Spicker. Try to teach as many Folk Songs as possible. Such songs live from generation to generation, and the children should know them.

Be particular as to the manner of presenting a song. It is not always the teacher with the voice that obtains the best results. The teacher who understands the spirit of the song and who has the power of making the children realize the thought of the song readily obtains sweet singing from the children.

Some think that many songs should be taught to the children in a year, but no thought is given to the manner in which the songs are sung. During the first year of school life a dozen good songs rightly taught and sweetly sung are worth much more to a child than numbers of songs carelessly given and thoughtlessly sung. For if a song is sung carelessly, the voice is injured; for when there is no concentration of the mind while singing, the voice is either harsh or lifeless. The right quality of voice will not come, so the double harm is done.

Aside from the mental and moral discipline involved, aside from the wonderful power of singing as a restoration for wearied mind and body, there is one point, practical and peremptory, that must be considered first, last, and all the time. I refer to the presentation and cultivation of the voice. No one has a right to injure any part of the child's body. The utmost care must be taken to prevent harsh, loud, or nasal singing, and this can only be done by insisting on the free use of the breath and lips; by pitching the songs rather high; by insisting on true singing, and by governing the tempo of the song by its thought.

Correct habits formed in the first grades and insisted upon during the school life, will preserve and strengthen the pure tones. If correct habits are persisted in, who can tell how many superior voices will be developed in our public schools?

During the first year of school life the children should be taught good songs, how to breathe and sing correctly, and they should gain independence in hearing, thinking, and singing tones of the scale.

As the children are promoted they become more proficient in this work, and they are ready to take up the reading of music, as presented by the Natural Music Course.

The success of this course depends upon a most careful and persistent reference from books to charts and from charts to books. Material which seems too difficult without previous chart drill, seems very easy when taken in the proper way. At the end of each page of the charts are notes telling the pages in the books that are to be used in connection with the page of the chart.

Children learn to sing by singing; therefore, as little time as possible should be spent on the technical part of the subject. In this course only one difficulty is presented at a time. Explain each one as it comes. If the children in their singing observe rests, holds and ties, it is worth more than mere definitions of the same.

At first do not say much about the signatures; they are simply signs to show the position of doh. As the children progress they will notice what signs are used for the different positions of doh.

After the pupils readily sing the exercises by syllable, let the children sing the same exercises, using the syllables coo or lah. Have them beat time with a slight wave of the hand.

Do not fear chromatics. If they are presented gradually in different combinations, and are practiced faithfully, they can be learned. In fact, if these charts and books are used systematically the children cannot fail to learn to read. Notice all notes at the end of pages of both charts and books.

The classes that meet together for the singing lesson should be provided with the same book, irrespective of grades, so that both note work and songs can be taken together—that is, if fifth and sixth grades are advanced, and meet together, use Reader II. Otherwise use the Primer.

Principals should see that music is taught in all the classes.

Especially order Chart A for the second and third grades, if that chart is not in the building.

If the teacher finds her children are in advance of the work on the circulars sent out, do not put children back. Let them try to work up to the Course of Study.

Avoid the singing of an exercise so often by syllable that the children learn it by heart.

The secret of success in using these books is to begin at the beginning of the book and go over the work systematically, deriving help from the chart.

Those teaching the singing should be provided with a C pitch pipe. One can be obtained at any music store.

FIRST GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Erect, natural position of the body. Free use of the breath while singing, also free use of lips. Soft, sweet tones. Gentle exercise in humming. Vowels on sustained tones, and on the scales, beginning at the upper doh.

Tones.—Use hand signs. Tones of scales beginning with doh-doh, gradually adding soh-me-ray-te-fah-lah, always combining each one with the tones previously taken. Drill thoroughly on each interval before taking up a new one. Also sing scale down from different pitches. Let children skip the tones in the scale, using syllables coo-lah instead of doh-ray, etc.

Songs.—By rote. Softly and sweetly sing songs pitched quite high. Select good and simple songs, at least ten during the year.

If time, give a few very simple songs by means of the *hand signs, or by writing the syllables on the board.

SECOND GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Erect positions of the body. Free use of the breath while singing; free use of the lips. Soft, sweet tones. Gentle exercises in humming. Vowels on sustained tones and scales; also, combine o and ä on scales. All scales to begin on upper doh.

Tones and Note Work.—*Use hand signs. Review intervals of scale, in all combinations, using syllables doh-ray-me, etc., and also coo-laa.

Songs.—By rote. Softly and sweetly sing good songs pitched quite high; also give a few simple songs by means of the hand signs, or by writing syllables on the board.

*See First Grade.

THIRD GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Erect positions of the body. Free use of the breath while singing. Free use of the lips. Soft, sweet tones. Gentle exercises in humming. Vowels on sustained tones

o-a-e
— .. ^
o-o-a

Also scales to be sung down and up, with vowels.

Tones and Note Work.—Vertical scale or hand signs. Also review intervals of scales in all combinations. Simple two-part exercises with hand signs and vertical scale. Use syllables do, ray, me, etc. Also coo and lah.

Teach names of lines and spaces a, b, c, d, e, f, g.

Study Chart A. Do not mention signatures. Simply show that doh has moved. Explain new points as encountered. Observe foot notes of chart. Be particular about the study of time introduced with this chart.

Songs.—By rote. Softly and sweetly sing good songs pitched quite high. Simple songs by means of *hand signs or vertical scale, or syllables written horizontally on board.

*See First Grade.

FOURTH GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Erect, natural positions of the body. Free use of the breath and lips while singing. Soft, sweet tones. Gentle and quick exercises in humming, and in the scales up an down, using various vowels and syllables. Sustained tones on (ō-e) (ē-ā) (ōō-ā) (ōō-ō-ā-ā)

Tones and Note Work.—On Vertical scale; practice the intervals in all combinations, using sharp of 4, called fe. Two parts on Vertical Scale. Sing also tones with syllables coo-lah.

Study Chart B, in connection with Primer through page 46. Take up each page on the chart systematically. Notice what pages of the Primer are mentioned at end of chart page, and study Primer pages in connection with chart pages. The signature of Key of C should be learned. Other keys simple mention that doh has moved. Explain new points as encountered.

Songs.—More difficult songs by rote to be sung sweetly.

FIFTH GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Erect, natural positions. Free use of breath and lips while singing. Soft, sweet tones. Gentle and rapid exercises in humming, and the scales up and down on vowels and syllables. Sustained tones

(\bar{o} , \bar{e}) (\bar{v} , \bar{a}) (\bar{oo} , \bar{a}) (\bar{oo} , \bar{o} , \bar{a} , \bar{a} , \bar{e})

In the latter exercise, the lips must be used very freely.

Tones and Note Work.—On vertical scale practice the intervals in all combinations, introducing flat 7 or ta (or sa). Sing also tones with syllables coo, laa. Study Chart C and last part of Primer from page 51. (Chart C may seem hard at first, but if you study the pages in the Primer that go with page on the Chart, difficulties will disappear.) The signatures of Key of G and the Key of F must be learned. Explain all new points encountered.

Songs.—By rote, to be sung sweetly.

SIXTH GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Erect position of the body. Free use of the breath and lips while singing. Soft, sweet singing. Gentle exercises and humming. Vowels on sustained tones, alone and in combination. Also rapid scale practice on different syllables.

Tones and Note Work.—Study through page 53 of Second Reader, and whenever Chart E is indicated throughout the book, practice pages designated. The Signatures of the Keys of D and B flat should be learned. Observe notes at the end of each page in Book and Chart.

SEVENTH GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Same as Sixth Grade.

Note Work.—Study from page 54 in Reader II, and wherever Chart E is indicated in book, practice pages designated.

The signatures of the Keys of A and E flat should be learned. Observe the remarks at the end of the charts and books.

Songs.—By rote and note, with expression.

EIGHTH GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Breathing. Humming. Rapid scale practice, also in reader. Vocal Drills Ex. 1, 20, 37, 63, 89.

Tone and Note Work.—Use vertical scale for interval practice. Reader IV. Always use the page of Chart G indicated, and drill on those exercises before taking up ones in the book. The signatures of the Keys of E, A flat, B, and D flat should be learned.

Omit pages 6, 7, 10, 11, 17, 18, 22, 25, 28, 31, 34, 36, 37, 40, 42, 44, 52, 53, 57, 60, 66, 67, 70, 71, 74, 75, 80, 82, 83, 84, 88, 96, 101, 104, 106, 110. Ex. 276, page 113, also page 115.

Songs.—By rote and note. In this grade, pupils should acquire skill in the grasping of the musical thought, as they do the thought of the printed page. They should also be able to sing simple three-part exercises and songs by sight.

Drawing.

By Miss K. M. BALL, Supervising Teacher of Drawing.

TEACHERS' MEETINGS.

1. Teachers will assemble for instruction in Drawing at the beginning of each term. These meetings shall occupy a session of one hour and a half, the classes of the teachers called being dismissed at 2 P. M.

2. Board rules governing attendance and tardiness shall apply at these meetings. Principals will note this for their general report.

SEATING AND LIGHTING OF ROOM.

Seats should be so arranged that the light may come from the left and rear of the room. Many class-rooms are so seated that the children sit and work in their own shadows, a condition which is very injurious to the eyes.

BLACKBOARDS.

Blackboards should have no permanent decorations that may interfere with their usefulness for general work. All explanatory work should be put on the front boards, as side boards are apt to give foreshortened views, which is detrimental to sight.

DUTIES OF PRINCIPALS

1. Principals should supervise the drawing in their respective schools, and confer with the Director of Drawing concerning any unsatisfactory work.

2. They should see that all children are provided with the necessary material within a week from the opening of school, and that the drawing lessons begin promptly and be given regularly according to program.

3. Programs should be so arranged that the lessons in different classes do not conflict when different teachers find it necessary to use the same models.

4. Principals should be responsible for the condition of general materials, and make requisition for any that are not supplied to their schools. Every school should have one set of fifty cubes, one set of fifty cylinders, and a manual for each teacher's desk.

5. When a principal finds a teacher incapable of teaching drawing, he should detail another teacher from his school to do this work.

Time.—One hour a week, to be divided into periods according to the convenience of the teacher.

Color Study.—Color recognition, color relationships. Lay the scale. Study yellow, red, and blue. Use colored tablets, or water colors.

Tablet Laying.—Lay borders and rosettes, using circular, square, and oblong tablets. Make imaginative arrangements of tablets.

Stick Laying.—Copy designs from given blackboard drawings. Make imaginative arrangements.

Paper Folding.—Fold the shawl, roof, book, square with diameters and diagonals, card case, frame, windmill, ship, and similar things.

Drawing:

For drills in formal work, use the pencil. For free expression in appearance drawings, use any of the following mediums: pencil, charcoal, colored crayons, brush and ink or water colors.

Drill Exercises.—Study position of body, hand, arm, paper, pencil, and pencil holding. Drill on circles and straight lines, on the blackboard and on paper. Work for free, full-arm movement, for delicacy of touch and light, soft lines.

Appearance Drawing.—Draw available, useful, and beautiful objects. Make large, free, quick drawings, which represent expressions of seeing, rather than accurate drawings. Learn imaging and tracing around the contour of the object in the air with the pencil. Draw from leaves, flowers, grasses, fruits, and vegetables, each child working from his own object.

Draw from the pose to illustrate stories. Use drawing to illustrate other studies. Work for facility and not for accuracy.

Copy given blackboard drawings. Work for a degree of accuracy.

Picture Study.—Study the works of well-known artists who represent things of interest to child life. Coordinate this work with the language work.

SECOND GRADE.

Time.—One hour a week, to be divided into periods, according to the convenience of the teacher.

Color Study.—Review laying the scale of twelve spectrum colors. Review yellow, red, blue, and study green, orange, and violet. Use colored tablets, or water colors.

Tablet Laying.—Lay borders and center arrangements, using all the different kinds of tablets. Make imaginative arrangements.

Stick Laying.—Study lengths of 1 to 6 inches. Lay geometric forms, squares, oblongs, triangles. Lay borders and decorative designs from given blackboard drawings. Lay imaginative arrangements.

Paper Folding and Cutting.—Fold and cut decorative designs in parts of four; for example, four-pointed star, Greek cross, quatrefoil. Modify these forms for original patterns.

Drawing:

For drills in formal work, use the pencil. For free expression in appearance drawings, use any of the following mediums: pencil, charcoal, colored crayons, brush and ink, and water colors.

Drill Exercises.—Review position of body, hand, arm, paper, pencil, and pencil holding. Drill on circles and straight lines on the blackboard and on paper. Work for free, full-arm movement, for delicacy of touch, and light, soft lines.

Decorative Drawing.—Draw decorative designs made in paper-folding and cutting and in tablet and stick laying. Learn bisection, trisection, and testing measurements on the pencil. Work for a degree of accuracy. Make very light lines for guide lines and strong, uniform lines for finished exercises.

Appearance Drawings.—Draw available useful and beautiful objects. Make large, free, quick drawings which represent expressions of seeing rather than accurate drawings. Teach imaging and tracing around the contour of objects in the air with the pencil. Draw from leaves, flowers, grasses, fruits, and vegetables, each child working from his own object. Draw from the pose to illustrate a story. Use drawing to illustrate other studies. Work for facility and not for accuracy. Copy given blackboard drawings. Work for a degree of accuracy.

Picture Study.—Study the works of well known artists who represent things of interest to child life. Coordinate this work with the language work.

THIRD GRADE.

Time.—One hour a week, to be divided into periods according to the teacher's convenience.

Making Paper Models.—Make a two-inch cube or square prism. Make some object suggested by the cube.

Paper Folding and Cutting.—Fold and cut decorative arrangements in parts of four, and three; for example, four-leaved rosette, quatrefoil, Maltese cross, and trefoil. Modify these forms for original patterns.

Color Study:

Study and scale three tones of red, orange, yellow, or green, blue, and violet. Make several designs selected from the exercises in folding and cutting, using two or three tones of the same color. Use colored papers, or water color wash.

Drawing:

For drills in formal work, use the pencil. For free expression in appearance drawing, use any of the following mediums: pencil, charcoal, colored crayons, brush and ink, or water colors.

Drill Exercises.—Review movement exercises in circles and straight lines, and study simple bilaterals. Work on the blackboard and on paper.

Decorative Drawing.—Make several careful drawings on paper of designs made in paper folding and cutting. Pay special attention to accuracy in bisecting, trisecting, and testing measurements on the pencil; to drawing with full arm movement; to making all guide or construction lines very light and all finished lines uniformly strong.

Appearance Drawing.—Draw available, useful and beautiful objects. Make large, free, quick drawings which represent expressions of seeing, rather than accurate drawings. Learn imaging and tracing around the contour of the object, in the air, with the pencil. Draw from leaves, flowers, grasses, fruits, and vegetables, always working from the object. Draw from the pose to illustrate a story. Use drawing to illustrate other studies. Work for facility and not for accuracy.

Picture Study.—Study the works of well known artists who represent things of interest to child life. Coordinate this study with language and composition work.

FOURTH GRADE.

Time.—One hour a week, to be divided into periods according to the teacher's convenience.

Making Paper Models.—Make a 4x2 inch square prism or a 4x2 inch right-tri-prism. Make some object suggested by either prism.

Paper Folding and Cutting.—Fold and cut decorative arrangements in parts of three and six; for example, three and six-leaved rosettes. Also make simple bilateral shapes by folding and cutting.

Color Study.—Study and scale five tones of red, orange, yellow, or green, blue, and violet. Make several designs selected from the exercises in folding and cutting, or from illustrations in the drawing book, using two or three tones of the same color. Use colored papers or water-color wash.

Drawing:

For drills in formal work use the pencil. For free expression in decorative and appearance drawing, use any of the following mediums: pencil, charcoal, colored crayons, brush and ink, or water colors.

Drill Exercises.—Review movement exercises in circles and straight lines. Study ellipses, double loop, and bilateral designs. Work on the blackboard and on paper.

Decorative Drawing.—Make memory drawings of paper cuttings, on the blackboard. Make several careful drawings on paper, of decorative designs given in the drawing book. Pay special attention to accuracy in bisecting, trisecting, and testing measurements on the pencil; to drawing with full arm movement; to making all guide or construction lines very light, and all finished lines uniformly strong.

Appearance Drawing.—Draw available, useful and beautiful objects. Make large, quick, free drawings which represent expression of seeing rather than accurate drawings. Teach imaging and tracing around the contour of the object, in the air, with the pencil. Draw from leaves, flowers, grasses, fruits, and vegetables and shells, each child working from his own object. Draw from the pose to illustrate a story. Use drawing to illustrate other studies. Work for facility and not for accuracy.

Picture Study.—Study the works of well known artists as outlined in the drawing book. Coordinate this study with language and composition work.

FIFTH GRADE.

Time.—One hour a week, to be divided into periods according to the teacher's convenience.

Making Paper Models.—Make a 4x2 inch cylinder, or a 4x2 inch cone. As a home exercise, make some object suggested by either of these two geometric types.

Paper Folding and Cutting.—Fold and cut decorative arrangements in parts of five; for example, the pentagon, five-pointed stars, and five-leaved rosettes. Also make simple bilateral shapes in vase forms by folding and cutting.

Color Study.—Study and scale five tones of red-orange, red-violet, yellow-orange, or yellow-green, blue-green, and blue-violet. Make several designs selected from the exercises in folding and cutting, or from the illustrations in the drawing book, using two or three tones of the same color. Used colored papers or water-color wash.

Drawing:

For drills and all technical drawing, use the pencil. For free expression in decoration and appearance drawing, use any of the following mediums: pencil, charcoal, colored crayons, brush and ink, or water-colors.

Drill Exercises.—Review movement exercises in circles and straight lines, ellipses, double loop, and simple bilaterals. Study reversed curves, vase forms, and advanced bilaterals. Make memory drawings of paper cuttings. Work on the blackboard and on paper.

Decorative Drawing.—Make several careful drawings on paper of decorative designs given in the drawing book. Pay special attention to accuracy in bisecting, trisecting and testing measurements on the pencil; to drawing with full arm movement; to making all guide or construction lines very light, and all finished lines uniformly strong.

Technical Perspective.—Draw the cylinder and things like it.

Appearance Drawing.—Free Drawing Applying Principles of Perspective: Draw a number of useful and beautiful objects, such as flower-pots, waste-baskets, buckets, vases, pieces of pottery, Indian baskets, and Japanese and Chinese lanterns and umbrellas. Free Drawing from Natural Objects: Draw several examples from foliage, flowers, grasses, and budding plants, fruits, vegetables, and shells. Illustrative Drawing: Draw from the pose to illustrate a story, and add imaginative backgrounds. Illustrate other studies.

Picture Study.—Study the works of well known artists as outlined in the drawing book. Coordinate this study with work in composition.

SIXTH GRADE.

Time.—One hour a week, to be divided into periods according to the teacher's convenience.

Making Paper Models.—Make a 2-inch cube or a 4x2-inch square pyramid. As a home exercise, make some object suggested by either of these geometric types.

Color Study.—Study and scale five tones of russet, brown and citrene, or olive, slate, heliotrope and neutral gray. Make several pieces of ornament suggested by the drawing book illustrations, using one, two, or three tones of the same color. This work may be done with colored papers or with water-color wash.

Drawing:

For drills and all technical drawings use the pencil. For free expression in decorative and appearance drawing use any of the following mediums: pencil, charcoal, colored crayons, brush and ink, or water colors.

Drill Exercises.—Review movement exercises in circles, straight lines, ellipses, double loop and bilaterals. Study rosettes. Work on the blackboard and on paper.

Decorative Drawing.—Draw examples of historic ornament from given examples in the drawing book.

Appearance Drawing.—Technical Perspective: Draw the cube in the positions of facing and turned at angles of 45 degrees. Free Drawing, Applying Principles of Perspective: Draw a number of useful objects, such as boxes, books, and baskets. Draw several beautiful objects, such as vases, pieces of pottery, Indian baskets, Japanese and Chinese lanterns and umbrellas. Free Drawing from Natural Objects: Draw several examples from foliage and flowers, or fruits, vegetables and shells. Illustrative Drawing: Draw from the pose to illustrate a story and add imaginative backgrounds. Illustrate other studies.

Picture Study.—Study the works of well known artists, as outlined in the drawing book. Co-ordinate the study with work in composition.

SEVENTH GRADE.

Time.—One hour a week, to be divided according to the teacher's convenience.

Constructive Drawing.—Draw geometric problems and face views of models and useful objects suggested by the drawing book. Use instruments for every part of the work.

Decorative Drawing.—Draw examples of historic ornament from given examples in the drawing book. Use any medium, pencil, pen and ink, brush and ink, or water colors.

Appearance Drawing.—Technical Perspective: Review principles governing the representation of cylindrical and conical objects; also, those governing the drawing of the cube in the positions of facing and turned at angles of 45 degrees. Study and draw the cube and similar objects in the position of turned at angles of 30 and 60 degrees. Light and shade: Study and draw wooden geometric types and plaster casts, with a view of seeing light and shade. Study methods of rendering in the given drawing book illustrations. Draw in light and shade several examples of beautiful objects. Use any medium.

Picture Study.—Study the works of well known artists, as outlined in the drawing book. Coördinate this study with the work in composition.

EIGHTH GRADE.

Time.—One hour a week, to be divided according to the teacher's convenience.

Constructive Drawing.—Draw geometric problems and face views of useful objects suggested by the drawing book. Use instruments for every part of this work.

Decorative Drawing.—Draw examples of historic ornament from given examples in the drawing book. Use any medium: pencil, pen and ink, brush and ink, or water colors.

Appearance Drawing.—Review perspective principles governing the representation of cylindrical and angular objects. Review principles governing the representation of light and shade. Study methods of rendering in the given drawing book illustrations. Draw several useful and beautiful objects in light and shade. Study grouping. Draw several groups of beautiful objects. Use any medium.

Picture Study.—Study the works of well known artists, as outlined in the drawing book. Coördinate this study with the work in composition.

NINTH GRADE.

Time.—One hour a week, to be divided according to the teacher's convenience.

Constructive Drawing.—Draw face views of useful objects suggested by the drawing book. Make plans and elevations of the school house. Use instruments for every part of the work.

Decorative Drawing.—Draw examples of historic ornament from given examples in the drawing book. Use any medium, pencil, pen and ink, brush and ink, or water colors.

Appearance Drawing.—Draw groups of useful and beautiful objects in light and shade. Use any medium.

Picture Study.—Study the works of well known artists, as outlined in the drawing book. Coördinate this study with the work in composition.

Illustrated History.

Mrs. H. B. STEELE, Special Teacher of History, with Stereopticon.

(Mrs. H. B. STEELE, Special Teacher of History, with Stereopticon.)

Taught through illustrated lectures upon the following themes:

Life and Times of Columbus.—These lessons will also touch upon the countries of Italy, Portugal, and Spain, as they were connected with his life and times.

The History and Civilization of the United States of America.—Divided into lectures comprising different periods.

Countries of Europe Which are, and have been, Closely Connected with the United States, Historically and Commercially, namely: England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Holland and Germany.

Conditions and Events in the World of To-day.—Cuba, with the Spanish and American war; the Philippines; Japan; the Hawaiian Islands; California.

The aim of each lesson is to impress the pupil through the mind and eye, teaching a combination of Geography, History, Literature, Civilization, and Patriotism.

This branch of instruction is conducted by Mrs. Hattie B. Steele, Special Teacher of History, and her lectures are planned so as to be correlative with the course of study.

CIVIL GOVERNMENT AND BOOKKEEPING.—Second term,

PRINCIPALS

Are directed as follows:

To see that the Course of Study, the Rules of the Board and the State Laws with reference to the schools are complied with, and that thorough work is done in the classes.

To keep an inventory of all the books, apparatus, flags and supplies in the school.

To see that the registers are kept in uniform and orderly manner, and in ink.

To keep informed of the conduct of children on their way to and from school and in the yards. Particular care should be exercised that no child shall have cause of complaint of his fellows. The chalking of buildings, fences and sidewalks should be suppressed.

To confine examination questions to the limits of the instructions to teachers.

To see that the supply of books, maps, globes and apparatus is kept up, and used in the interest of objective or observation work.

To see that the provision for home lessons is complied with.

To co-operate in every endeavor to secure right intent and careful observation and execution from every pupil.

To impress the importance of drill, after thorough understanding of subjects taught, and review.

To protect classes against injudicious promotions, and to suppress unwise class requirements.

To permit temporary arrangements so that music may be assigned to the most expert teachers.

SPECIFIC DIRECTIONS TO TEACHERS.

More than one section of class at discretion of teacher, but no more recitations are to be heard in a day than will permit of thorough mastery and drill on each; pupils are not to be hurried for the sake of touching each subject every day; consider only enough daily to permit of thorough, enthusiastic work.

Every teacher should endeavor to be a good black-board writer.

Classes should have sufficient daily review and drill.

In place of supplementary reading in grammar grade classes teachers will make use of the school library.

In all schools teachers may be assigned by the Principal to music classes according to their abilities in the subject. Schools not organized in music well enough to follow the course should make special efforts to bring the work up to grade at an early date. The voices of boys from thirteen to fifteen years of age inclusive, must not be strained.

Public reading and speaking, parliamentary usage and debating, in upper grades, in connection with Civil Government.

Fourth to ninth grades, inclusive: A business letter and one commercial form, such as an order for goods, a bill or a receipt, from pupils to Principals, on report day, and one composition or letter of friendship to Principals between report days, spelling and punctuation to be especially attended to. These are intended for the inspection of the Principal, the teacher to attend to the marking and correction of the papers.

Calisthenic and breathing exercises, twice daily.

Dole's "The American Citizen" in hands of teachers of seventh and eighth and ninth grades.

Patriotism, morals, manners and humane instruction in all grades at a set time, weekly.

The day's exercises should begin with song. Appropriate selections will be found in the back part of the prescribed music books.

Board or Principal's examinations at close of term; Board examinations at end of year. Visits by Superintendent and Deputies during term.

Provide a time daily for individual instruction, if possible. This will be of especial benefit to ambitious pupils who are behind in their class work.

Many young teachers fail in discipline by a wrong conception of the principle of "ruling by love." Mutual esteem should exist throughout a school, among pupils and teachers and between all and the Principal; but it is a mistake to sacrifice a demand of obedience and good intent for fear of loss of good will; nor should the unworthy or unruly be placed in posts of honor to win good will. Opposite results from a class, always discriminating, might be expected.

In the grammar grades supplementary reading has been diminished, that reading may be better taught and literature more thoroughly analyzed.

In all grammar grades defining must accompany spelling and reading.

Annual promotion of classes; but principals may put back incapable pupils, after consulting with class teachers, at any time during the year.

Should injury to desks or other annoyance occur where day and evening classes occupy the same room, the Principals should confer to fix responsibility.

Teachers are not to relax watchfulness over their classes by visiting associate teachers during session or by work on examination papers or registers. The closest attention to discipline is expected. [Vide "Rules."]

Correlation or concentration should be constantly in the minds of the teachers. For instance, no zealous teacher would fail to bring into the geography lessons facts from the history. In geography, also, current events will be drawn upon, that the pupil's stock of general information should be of constant growth and ready use.

That part of the State Law which pupils should know should be read from the register once a month.

In every recitation insist upon an erect position, distinct articulation, and correct expression.

Insist on all written work being done neatly, the pencils being sharp, and of sufficient length.

Books and papers should always be placed in good order in desks.

The use of pencil tablet paper is recommended in place of slates.

Corporal punishment shall not be administered in the High Schools, nor upon girls in any schools of the Department. Such punishment must be administered by Principals, by Vice-Principals having charge of boys' yards, or by teachers of primary classes, with consent of Principals, and shall only be resorted to in extreme cases, when other means fail to maintain obedience. No excessive, cruel or unusual punishment shall be allowed.

All modes of punishment calculated to degrade a pupil, and the use, on the part of any teacher, of discourteous language towards pupils or parents, are expressly forbidden.

Every classroom should be supplied with a national flag, and the same should be saluted every morning. On Monday mornings the salute should be accompanied by the pledge: "I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the Republic for which it stands—one people, one language, one flag."

Avoid the use of irritating language. The sarcastic teacher is likely to have insolent pupils.

As far as possible avoid placing a pupil in a position in which he will be tempted to tell a falsehood.

Give few commands, but enforce those made.

Make no rash promises, but keep those made.

Make the schoolroom attractive and pleasant.

Widest latitude to teachers in making up programs and following methods, but a copy of the program must be written in the register and another kept posted in the schoolroom.

Home work: Third grade, half hour; fourth, fifth and sixth grades, one hour; seventh and eighth grades, one and one-half hours; ninth grade, two hours. These are the least limits. Enough time should be devoted to secure sufficient preparation for thorough work the next day. Some will not require as much time as specified; others, more, at times.

The twenty minutes allowed for recess must include the time necessary for leaving and returning to rooms and all preparations and exercises incidental thereto. Preparations for dismissal must not be made till five minutes of the hour set for the same. (See "Rules of the Board.")

In all cases of doubt as to the best method of procedure in matters pertaining to the course of study or discipline, the advice of the Principal should be sought.

Close attention should be given to temperature and ventilation. Loss of or damage to the thermometers supplied last year should be reported at once to the superintendent.

Supplement to be attached to and used with the July Schedule, 1899.)

To take the place of the September Schedule.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA,

R. H. WEBSTER, SUPERINTENDENT.

October 3, 1899.

REVISED FALL SCHEDULE OF WORK

FOR THE

Primary and Grammar Grades,

JULY 31 TO DECEMBER 15, 1899.

BY DIRECTION OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To Principals and Teachers, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I. Owing to lack of funds the "Suggestions to Teachers" contributed by teachers, and the usual "Instructions," must be omitted from this manual.

II. One-half of everything in the July Schedule, not in the Fall Schedule, should be taken. This is especially emphasized.

III. Classes should be prepared for written examinations in subjects other than those presented in May-June, and July-August, and for slight advance in percentages.

IV. Examinations in music and drawing on one-fourth the amount scheduled for the year.

V. Not more than half an hour a week should be given to each of the subjects: music, drawing, sewing.

VI. Vertical writing is imperative.

VII. Principals of grammar grades are not to give nor permit to be given to pupils any work not within the limits prescribed in the Schedules, particularly nature or science work, or exhibition work.

VIII. An "Aid to the Teaching of the Lady of the Lake and Evangeline," prepared in part by Messrs. Kellogg and Blanchard, of the English department, Lowell High School, this city, may be obtained in pamphlet form of J. W. Graham, Hanford, Cal., or through Mrs. Hattie J. Bain, Vice-Principal of the Crocker Grammar School, this city. Grammar School teachers will find therein the aid desired, though much applies only to high schools.

IX. Works for reference, on pedagogy, on the teaching of the subjects of the Schedules, on history, literature, etc. may be found in the Teachers' Library of this department at the rooms of the Superintendent.

X. Annotated editions of Literature for the 7th, 8th and 9th grades may be procured in pamphlet form, at 5, 10 and 15 cents per copy.

Teachers are directed to require pupils to purchase pamphlet copies of Evangeline and The Lady of the Lake.

NOTES.

The following corrections and additions in the Music and Drawing course should be made:

MUSIC.

- Third Grade.—Add Chart A.
 Fourth Grade.—Through page 45. Chart B.
 Fifth Grade.—From page 46. Chart C.
 Sixth Grade.—Chart E.
 Seventh Grade.—Chart E.
 Eighth Grade.—Through page 81. Chart G.
 Ninth Grade.—Completed from page 82. Also Chart G.

On page 21—o-ô-a should be o-â-a.

Pupils should be prepared by December on at least one-fourth the work prescribed in the July Schedule.

The Eighth Grade Schedule is changed and the ninth added as follows:

EIGHTH GRADE.

VOCAL DRILL.—Breathing, humming, rapid scale practice.

TONES AND NOTE WORK.—Use vertical scale for interval practice. Reader IV, through page 50, omitting pages 6, 7, 10, 11, 17, 18, 22, 25, 28, 31, 34, 36, 37, 40, 42, 44. Use pages of chart G, indicated. Study the signatures of the key of E. The key of A flat, the key of B, and the key of D flat should be learned.

SONGS.—By rote and note, with expression.

NINTH GRADE.

VOCAL DRILL.—Breathing. Humming. Rapid scale practice.

TOE AND NOTE WORK.—Use vertical scale for interval practice. Study Reader IV from page 81 through page 121, omitting pages 82, 83, 84, 88, 96, 101, 104, 106, 110, 113, 115. Use pages of chart G indicated. Review the signatures of all the keys.

SONGS.—By rote and note. In this grade pupils should acquire skill in the grasping of the musical thought, as they do the thought of the printed page. They should be able to sing simple three-part exercises and songs by sight.

HAND SIGNS.

These hand signs are to be used in teaching the intervals of the scale, and are insisted on for the first three grades. Use the Italian syllables: Do, re, mi, fa, sol, la, ti. The high do sign has greater elevation; otherwise it is the same as the low do sign.

DRAWING.

Third Grade.—Color Study, last word, "wash," omit. Decorative drawing, fifth line, omit.

Sixth Grade.—Color Study. Last word, "wash," omit.

CIVIL GOVERNMENT AND BOOKKEEPING.—Second term.

PRINCIPALS

Are directed as follows:

To see that the Course of Study, the Rules of the Board and the State Laws with reference to the schools are complied with, and that thorough work is done in the classes.

To keep an inventory of all the books, apparatus, flags and supplies in the school.

To see that the registers are kept in uniform and orderly manner, and in ink.

To keep informed of the conduct of children on their way to and from school and in the yards. Particular care should be exercised that no child shall have cause of complaint of his fellows. The chalking of buildings, fences and sidewalks should be suppressed.

To confine examination questions to the limits of the instructions to teachers.

To see that the supply of books, maps, globes and apparatus is kept up, and used in the interest of objective or observation work.

To see that the provision for home lessons is complied with.

To co-operate in every endeavor to secure right intent and careful observation and execution from every pupil.

To impress the importance of drill, after thorough understanding of subjects taught, and review.

To protect classes against injudicious promotions, and to suppress unwise class requirements.

To permit temporary arrangements so that music may be assigned to the most expert teachers.

SPECIFIC DIRECTIONS TO TEACHERS.

More than one section of class at discretion of teacher, but no more recitations are to be heard in a day than will permit of thorough mastery and drill on each; pupils are not to be hurried for the sake of touching each subject every day; consider only enough daily to permit of thorough, enthusiastic work.

Every teacher should endeavor to be a good black-board writer.

Classes should have sufficient daily review and drill.

In place of supplementary reading in grammar grade classes teachers will make use of the school library.

In all schools teachers may be assigned by the Principal to music classes according to their abilities in the subject. Schools not organized in music well enough to follow the course should make special efforts to bring the work up to grade at an early date. The voices of boys from thirteen to fifteen years of age inclusive, must not be strained.

Public reading and speaking, parliamentary usage and debating, in upper grades, in connection with Civil Government.

Fourth to ninth grades, inclusive: A business letter and one commercial form, such as an order for goods, a bill or a receipt, from pupils to Principals, on report day, and one composition or letter of friendship to Principals between report days, spelling and punctuation to be especially attended to. These are intended for the inspection of the Principal, the teacher to attend to the marking and correction of the papers.

Calisthenic and breathing exercises, twice daily.

Dole's "The American Citizen" in hands of teachers of seventh and eighth and ninth grades.

Patriotism, morals, manners and humane instruction in all grades at a set time, weekly.

The day's exercises should begin with song. Appropriate selections will be found in the back part of the prescribed music books.

Board or Principal's examinations at close of term; Board examinations at end of year. Visits by Superintendent and Deputies during term.

Provide a time daily for individual instruction, if possible. This will be of especial benefit to ambitious pupils who are behind in their class work.

Many young teachers fail in discipline by a wrong conception of the principle of "ruling by love." Mutual esteem should exist throughout a school, among pupils and teachers and between all and the Principal; but it is a mistake to sacrifice a demand of obedience and good intent for fear of loss of good will; nor should the unworthy or unruly be placed in posts of honor to win good will. Opposite results from a class, always discriminating, might be expected.

In the grammar grades supplementary reading has been diminished, that reading may be better taught and literature more thoroughly analyzed.

In all grammar grades defining must accompany spelling and reading.

Annual promotion of classes; but principals may put back incapable pupils, after consulting with class teachers, at any time during the year.

Should injury to desks or other annoyance occur where day and evening classes occupy the same room, the Principals should confer to fix responsibility.

Teachers are not to relax watchfulness over their classes by visiting associate teachers during session or by work on examination papers or registers. The closest attention to discipline is expected. [Vide "Rules."]

Correlation or concentration should be constantly in the minds of the teachers. For instance, no zealous teacher would fail to bring into the geography lessons facts from the history. In geography, also, current events will be drawn upon, that the pupil's stock of general information should be of constant growth and ready use.

That part of the State Law which pupils should know should be read from the register once a month.

In every recitation insist upon an erect position, distinct articulation, and correct expression.

Insist on all written work being done neatly, the pencils being sharp, and of sufficient length.

Books and papers should always be placed in good order in desks.

The use of pencil tablet paper is recommended in place of slates.

Corporal punishment shall not be administered in the High Schools, nor upon girls in any schools of the Department. Such punishment must be administered by Principals, by Vice-Principals having charge of boys' yards, or by teachers of primary classes, with consent of Principals, and shall only be resorted to in extreme cases, when other means fail to maintain obedience. No excessive, cruel or unusual punishment shall be allowed.

All modes of punishment calculated to degrade a pupil, and the use, on the part of any teacher, of discourteous language towards pupils or parents, are expressly forbidden.

Every classroom should be supplied with a national flag, and the same should be saluted every morning. On Monday mornings the salute should be accompanied by the pledge: "I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the Republic for which it stands—one people, one language, one flag."

Avoid the use of irritating language. The sarcastic teacher is likely to have insolent pupils.

As far as possible avoid placing a pupil in a position in which he will be tempted to tell a falsehood.

Give few commands, but enforce those made.

Make no rash promises, but keep those made.

Make the schoolroom attractive and pleasant.

Widest latitude to teachers in making up programs and following methods, but a copy of the program must be written in the register and another kept posted in the schoolroom.

Home work: Third grade, half hour; fourth, fifth and sixth grades, one hour; seventh and eighth grades, one and one-half hours; ninth grade, two hours. These are the least limits. Enough time should be devoted to secure sufficient preparation for thorough work the next day. Some will not require as much time as specified; others, more, at times.

The twenty minutes allowed for recess must include the time necessary for leaving and returning to rooms and all preparations and exercises incidental thereto. Preparations for dismissal must not be made till five minutes of the hour set for the same. (See "Rules of the Board.")

In all cases of doubt as to the best method of procedure in matters pertaining to the course of study or discipline, the advice of the Principal should be sought.

Close attention should be given to temperature and ventilation. Loss of or damage to the thermometers supplied last year should be reported at once to the superintendent.

SEVENTH GRADE.

II. Formal Drawing.

Do exercises 5, 7, 8, 10, 11 and 12 of supervisor's notes.

II. Technical Perspective.

Review on practice paper the drawing of the cube in the positions of Facing and Turned at angles of 45° , below the level of the eye, and study it in the position of Turned at 30° and 60° , below the level of the eye.

III. Drawing for Observation to be done with pencil or brush. Have the children do independent work.

- (a). On practice paper draw several angular objects such as books, baskets, boxes, etc.
- (b). Draw from the object in the drawing book, on p. 7, some angular object; on p. 3, a branch of foliage.

EIGHTH GRADE.

I. Formal Drawing.

Do exercises 5, 7, 8, 10, 11 and 12 of supervisor's notes.

II. Technical Perspective.

Review the perspective of cylindrical and cubical objects.

III. Drawing for Observation to be done with either pencil or brush. Have the pupils do independent work.

- (a). On practice paper draw several cylindrical and cubical objects, such as a drum, a waste basket, a box, a book, etc.
- (b). Draw from the object in the drawing book, on p. 7, a group of common objects; on p. 3, a spray of leaves.

NINTH GRADE.

I. Formal Drawing.

Do exercises 5, 7, 8, 10 11 and 12 of supervisor's notes.

II. Technical Perspective.

Review perspective of cylindrical and cubical objects.

III. Drawing for Observation to be done with either pencil or brush.

Have the pupils do independent work.

(a). On practice paper draw several cylindrical and cubical objects, such as a drum, a flower-pot, a box, a book, etc.

(b). Draw from the object in the drawing book, on p. 6, some common angular object; on p. 19, a spray of leaves or flowers.

NOTES.

(a). Any work in drawing outlined in this circular that has already been done need not be repeated.

(b). Miss Ball, Supervisor of Drawing, will meet teachers at the Webster School Building, in her room, Tuesday afternoon, after school hours, instead of at City Hall.

(c). Miss Ball will begin a series of voluntary meetings for instruction in drawing on Mondays, commencing October 30th, at the Webster School Building at 3:45. October 30th, Foliage and Flowers; November 6th, Fruits and Vegetables; November 13th, Cylindrical Objects; November 20th, Angular Objects. Teachers attending will please be provided with paper, pencils, or brushes, and material to draw from.

III.

1. (a). In the Fourth Grade, the biographies required, as per State Grammar, would be too full, except as to Columbus. For the others, ten or fifteen lines, containing the most important facts, as date, nationality, and achievement, will suffice. Example: "In 1499, seven years after Columbus had discovered the West Indies (or America), Amerigo Vespucci, from Florence, Italy, reached the northeastern coast of South America. Two years later, after a second voyage, he published an account of the Western World, without mentioning Columbus. From this the name America came, instead of Columbia—a great wrong to Columbus." (b). Omit questions as specified in the Humane Education.

2. In the Fifth Grade, omit questions as specified in the Physiology, teacher to read the essentials to pupils.

3. (a). Sixth Grade, read Fairbanks to class; omit blank book work; omit physiology this term. (b). Classes will not be examined on pp. 111, 112, State Advanced Arithmetic. (c). Teachers are instructed to require pupils to purchase inexpensive pamphlet copies of "Snow-Bound;" omit figures of speech.

4. Seventh Grade Arithmetic, October schedule, should be read "to solid measure, p. 134, as per July schedule." Geography should be read "as per July schedule;" omit thought questions, pp. 47 and 51. Omit Civil Government this term. In Physiology prescribed, omit questions involving knowledge of Anatomy.

The December examinations in word analysis, seventh grade, will be confined to the following :

(Latin) agere, p. 23, present infinitive form, meaning to do, or to drive; ago, present indicative form, first person singular, meaning I do, or I drive; actum, giving the stem act, from which are derived the English words: Act, enact, transact, react, action, inaction, inactive, inactivity, actor, enactment. From the root form ag derive agent, agility, agile, cogent.

From alienus, alien, alienate, alienation, inalienable.

From amare, amiable, amity, amicable, amateur (through the French).

From animus, animate, animosity, animation, reanimate.

From annus, annual, annuity, millenium.

Following are the prefixes and suffixes used in the above, and which are to be committed to memory: Prefixes—in, en, trans, re; suffixes—ion, ive, ity, or, ent, ile, ment, ate, able, al, cule. All the meanings are to be learned.

Follow "Method of Study," pp. 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, Swinton's New Word Analysis. Omit "Exercises" this term.

5. Eighth Grade Arithmetic, October schedule, after pp. 122-154, inclusive, should be read "as per July schedule." Omit thought questions, pp. 47 and 51 in Geography.

6. In the July schedule the words selected from the Geography for Fourth and Fifth Grade Spelling, have been eliminated.

7. December written examinations will not include Nature Study, Physiology, Humane Education.

8. Pupils promoted last mid-year should be prepared for December examinations on all the work prescribed for their respective grades, 1899-1900, in the July schedule, except the spelling words from the Geography.

9. One hour a week may be devoted to instruction in sewing.

IV.

Increased aid in supervision will enable the commencement, in January next, of systematic personal test of all subjects not tried in written examinations, such as:

Vocal Culture as per Fourth Reader, pp. xi-xv; recitation, with gestures; reading, debating (in 9th grade), singing; mental arithmetic; condition of books; appearance of writing-books, book-keeping sheets, business forms, drawing and blank books; manner of saluting flag, with pledge; of calisthenics and physical culture; of managing composition; manner and frequency of imparting morals, manners, patriotism; of managing home-work, keeping registers, reading the State School law; of keeping record of temperature; of marching and fire-drills; of using the library, charts and apparatus; attention to pupils to and from school and in the yards; of fire drills; of discipline; of methods.

V.

Schools are expected to have fire drills at least twice a month. Principals and teachers should familiarize themselves and pupils of upper floors, with the position and use of fire escapes.

VI.

(a). Principals of primary schools will please inform this office immediately whether in the judgment of their teachers the work in Humane Education, as prescribed in the October schedule of work, is excessive, and what modification, if any, should be made.

(b). Principals of elementary (day and evening) schools will please remit to this office a statement of what grades, if any, in their schools, are divided into high and low divisions, separated by six months of work, and the number of pupils in each division.

VII.

State enrollment of any school includes pupils who have not been enrolled in any other public school in the State of California during the ensuing fiscal year, e. g.

Pupils enrolled in a school July 31, 1899—463; during school month ending August 25, 1899, 24 additional pupils were received, of whom 17 had not been enrolled in any other school since July 31. The State enrollment would be 463, plus 17, or 480.

VIII.

The Fall schedule, together with the modifications herewith presented, are the results of the recommendations of schools. All suggestions will be filed for consideration in circular issues.

SCHEDULE OF WORK

FOR THE

By Direction of the Board of Education, July 26, 1899.

[One-fourth of the work to be completed as near as topics permit, in each quarter of the year, to facilitate transferring of pupils, and uniform examinations. Written examinations by Board or Principals semi-annually. All subjects not included in written examinations, to be passed upon by Department of Supervision, results to take part in general standing.]

Day Schools.

FIRST YEAR (OR GRADE).

Oral Language.—Relate or read stories illustrating kindness, gentleness, unselfishness, truthfulness, honesty, patriotism; talks from Longfellow's *Hiawatha, especially Hiawatha's childhood, etc.; on Thanksgiving Day, Washington's Birthday, Decoration Day; natural history and geography stories, etc.; direction, measurements; observation of local geographical features; consult pp. 5, 6, 7, State Elementary Geography; encourage children to reproduce stories orally, cultivating a ready and correct use of simple sentences; correction of common errors; names of parts of the body; care of body.

Written Language.—Copy simple exercises from the board and from the book to learn to capitalize, punctuate, and spell by imitation. Require each pupil to write his name, age, and residence, in complete sentences. Teach the writing of simple sentences conveying information;—much exercise in this.

*Hē-a-wā-tha, the Indian pronunciation.

Reading.—From blackboard, chart, and card; first 33 lessons in State First Reader (Revised) (teachers to read preface), and one-half of a supplementary primer; Bass's, Wooster's and Cyr's Primers in hands of teacher.

Spelling.—Write 50 ordinary words, correctly, in short, easy sentences.

Numbers.—Develop addition and subtraction (singly and by groups); vary addition by groups, as: 4, 8, 12, 16, or, 4, 6, 10, 12, 16, objectively of numbers from 1 to 16,* counting and writing numbers (singly and by groups) from 1 to 50; use numeral frame and objects, such as pebbles, beans, and grains of corn; 2 pints equal 1 quart, 4 quarts equal 1 gallon, objectively (secure the measures from the storeroom, through your Principal); 12 inches equal 1 foot (secure also a rule), 2 nickles equal 1 dime, 10 dimes equal 1 dollar, 2 halves equal 1 dollar, 4 quarters equal 1 dollar. Grube optional.

*Without objects, 1 to 12.

Writing.—Vertical to be used by the teacher in all school work; pupil to copy from blackboard and reader. A bad habit formed here is likely to show through life. Preceding all lessons, five minutes practice on exercises usually found in writing-books. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical Penmanship, Book I, in hands of teacher.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers.

Music.—See Instructions to Teachers.

Physical Culture.—See Instructions to Teachers.

SECOND YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—Complete the State First Reader and the supplementary book half read in the first grade. Also read one supplementary first reader or its equivalent; memorizing and reciting.

Spelling.—Oral and written.

Oral Language.—Reproduction of stories, as in the first year, with same object; talks on Columbus, National holidays, Longfellow's birthday; cardinal points, seasons, night and day, sun as a source of light and heat, the moon, north star, etc.; land and water; measurements of school room; continuation of general direction and measurement; organs of body; senses; consult pp. 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, State Elementary Geography.

Written Language.—Abbreviations: Mr., Mrs., st., days of the week, names of the months; date, teacher's name, child's name and address. Copy from reader for exercise. Proper use of words in brief sentences to take the place of defining; teach telling and question sentences. Dictation and correction of common errors in capitalizing, spelling, and punctuating. Memorize simple poetic selections.

Arithmetic.—Numbers written to 100; the four fundamental operations in numbers from 1 to 20; Roman to XXV; State Primary Number Lessons, in hands of teacher, to 50; learn signs, and drill on combinations, preparatory to column adding; teach the place value of units, tens, etc.; counting by 2's, 3's, 4's, and the like; addition and subtraction extended by use of objects and by analogy, as: 3, 13, 23; 8, 18, 28, and so on to 100.

Writing.—Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical Book I. For exercise, see instructions to Third Grade.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers.

Music.—See Instructions to Teachers.

Physical Culture.—See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—By special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

Health Lessons.—Simple talks on health. State Physiology in hands of teacher.

Humane Education.—Page's Humane Education, Part I, in hands of teacher. Form Bands of Mercy as per Instructions.

THIRD GRADE (OR YEAR).

Reading.—Second Reader (State Revised), begun and completed; at least one supplementary second reader, or its equivalent. Memorizing and reciting. See instructions to Fifth Grade, this schedule.

Spelling.—Words at the head of each reading lesson.

Language.—State Lessons in Language, first 40 lessons. Written composition begun; simple letters. Written defining and proper use of defined words in sentences from lists preceding reading lessons. Letter writing by pupils once in two weeks. For a device in composition place upon the board words, such as early, James, John, boat, dig, bay morning, lunch, fish, pleasant, noon, show, string, sun, west, horse, good time, and have pupils use them in a story. Invent other devices. Compositions or letters to be corrected by teacher and returned to pupil to be written correctly, teacher to collect again for inspection. Continue exercises in telling and question sentences. Add commanding sentences.

Arithmetic.—Write numbers to 10,000; counting by 2's, 3's, and 4's; Roman numerals to L; study objectively pt., qt., gal.; in., ft., yd.; da., wk., mo.; doz.; coins. Constant drill in subtraction; multiplication and division through 7's. Mental problems embodying tables, and only one primary principle. State Primary Number Lessons to Lesson 86. Add and subtract by 2's, 3's, 4's, 5's, to 100. Comprehension of $\frac{1}{2}$, 1-3, $\frac{1}{4}$, 1-6. Add 10 numbers of 3 figures each.

United States money with the decimal point.

Simple mental problems in reduction of compound numbers, involving one step and using the measures, thus: How many feet in 2 yds., in 3 yds., in 2 yds. 1 ft., in 3 yds. 2 ft? 5 gallons are how many qts? 6 gallons, 3 qts. are how many qts? 10 ft. are how many yards? Practice addition.

Geography.—Locate objects with reference to points of compass. Study such natural features as are in sight—mountains, hills, bay, ocean, islands, etc. Local geography from bay counties, and rough map drawing of same; simple talks on manufactures of San Francisco, and natural products of the State; city's limits, and five important cities of the State. State Elementary Geography in hands of teacher, first 21 pages, as far as "Moisture." Omit definition of mountain system, plateau, rapids, river basin, water-shed, crevasse.

Writing.—Practice vertical. Preceding all lessons, five minutes' practice on right and left ovals and other exercises usually found on the inside of covers to writing books. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical, Book II.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers.

Music.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Physical Culture.—Under direction of special teacher. See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—By special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

Health Lessons.—Simple talks on health. State Physiology in hands of teachers. See "Notes."

Humane Education.—Page's Humane Education, Part II, in hands of teachers. Form Bands of Mercy as per Instructions. See "Notes" in this manual.

FOURTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—State Third Reader (Revised), teacher to read preface. Memorizing and reciting. See instructions for Fifth Grade. Emphasize indicated elocutionary drill-work. Sentence-making, illustrating meanings of words. A supplementary reader of equal grade to State Third Reader. For review of Fall work, see Circulars 9 and 10. Continue vocal training, pp. XI-XV, Fourth Reader. Definitions and sentences from defined words selected from end of reading lessons.

Spelling.—Words at the beginning and end of reading lessons.

Language, Oral and Written.—State Lessons in Language, lessons 41 to 79, inclusive; letters or compositions once in two weeks (see instructions to Third Grade); blackboard compositions, teacher selecting one or more to criticise; oral descriptions; reproductions from stories; all compositions brief. Proper use of words in brief sentences to take place of defining. Dictation and correction of common errors emphasized. Distribute slips of paper, the size of envelopes and have them addressed.

Arithmetic.—Write numbers to 1,000,000. Roman numerals to C. Simple bills applying to U. S. money. Drill on tables and *problems involving not more than one primary principle. State Advanced Arithmetic to page 54, inclusive (book in hand of teacher). Thoroughly review multiplication table to 12×12 , and division to 144 divided by 12; at least three times a week, addition of ten numbers of three figures each; accuracy, then rapidity; definitions, of sum, difference, minuend, subtrahend, multiplicand, multiplier, dividend, divisor, quotient, remainder; and in operations, designate same in writing; review length, weight, liquid capacity, time. Practice addition.

Mental Arithmetic.—Bailey's to page 28, inclusive, except page 13; accuracy, speed, (book in hands of teacher). Parallel written arithmetic.* Addition and subtraction of simple fractions with the same denominator or with denominators different whose equivalence to the common denominator is easily comprehended. Use measures for this work, as in the development of fractions; e. g.: $\frac{1}{2}$ of a foot equals 6 inches; $1\text{-}3$ of a foot equals 4 inches; 6 inches plus 4 inches equals 10 inches. Since 1 inch equals $1\text{-}12$ of a foot, 10 inches equal ten times $1\text{-}12$, or $10\text{-}12$ of a foot. Four fundamental operations in U. S. money, but no decimal fractions in multiplier or divisor. Substitute simpler exercises and problems, involving one primary principle.

*Substitute simpler exercises and problems, involving one primary principle.

Geography.—State Elementary, in the following order: pp. 23-46.

Nature Study.—"Pacific Nature Stories," in hands of teacher.

History.—See "Addenda," this manual.

Writing.—Practice vertical. For exercise, see instructions to Third Grade. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical Book III.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers.

Music.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instruction to Teachers.

Physical Culture.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—By special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

Health Talks.—Bathing, pure air, proper food. State Physiology, in hands of teachers.

Humane Education.—Page's Humane Education, Part III, in hands of teacher. Form Bands of Mercy, as per Instructions. See "Notes," this manual.

FIFTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—Fourth Reader (Revised) to lesson 23, page 53, teacher to carry out design expressed in the preface and to read pages 1 to 20, back of book; weekly practice on vocal training, pages X to XV; follow memorizing and notes at end of lesson; pupils to read piece silently, teacher making meanings clear; a few pupils may then be tried on bringing out the thought and the literary beauties; failing, the teacher reads entire piece in the best manner, conversing with the class on the treasures in it; reading, analysis, spelling and defining, by pupils. This book is one of the few readers calculated to develop a love and critical taste for good literature. A class of even the little ones of the fifth grade that does not pass to the sixth grade with fond expectations of the pursuit of this book to the close has not accomplished all that is desired. For methods and supplementary reading, see Instructions to Teachers. For supplementary reading, "Eggleson's History of the United States," or equivalent. Circulars 9 and 10 for review of Fall work.

Spelling, Sentence-Making and Defining.—Fourth Reader, through Lesson 16, and from text-books, within limits of lessons; examination by deputies.

Language and Composition.—Revised English Grammar (State Series), first 27 lessons, teacher to read the preface. Composition work, correlating with history—Cortez, Pilgrims, etc. Notes, invitations, letter writing. See instructions to third grade regarding correction of composition work. Dictation and correction of common errors emphasized. Teach defining by use of dictionary. Use of synonyms as per page 26, emphasizing in composition.

Arithmetic.—State Advanced, reviewed from beginning, and pages 53 to Exercise 129, p. 87, omitting pp. 70-

71. U. S. money in bills. Review of tables. Omit pp. 55-56, and probs. 47, p. 60; 71, p. 61; 76, p. 62; 81, p. 62.

Mental Arithmetic.—Bailey, pp. 29-47, inclusive.

Geography.—State Elementary, pp. 34-88 to British America; map questions, and recitation questions in "Description." Omit paragraphs 1 and 7, p. 48.

Nature Study.—"Nature Stories of the Northwest," Bashford, in hands of teacher as applies to lessons in geography. See "Notes."

History.—See "Addenda," this manual.

Writing.—Practice vertical. For practice, see instructions to Third Grade. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical, No. IV.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers.

Music.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Physical Culture.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—By special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

Hygiene.—State Physiology, in hands of teacher. Chaps. I and II. See "Notes," this manual.

Humane Education.—Page's Humane Education, Part IV, in hands of teacher. Omit questions in book. Teacher to give essentials. See "Notes." Form Bands of Mercy, as per instructions.

SIXTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—State Fourth Reader, Lessons 23 to 50, both inclusive. See instruction for Fifth Grade work. Emphasize indicated vocal drill. Whittier's "Snow-Bound" to be vocal drill. Whittier's "Snow-Bound" to be read, omitting read, omitting the reflective or difficult portions. Lines 1-19, and "Barefoot Boy," Fourth Reader, for recitation, individually and by class. Vocal training, pp. XI-XV, Fourth Reader. Biography of Whittier, as in Eighth Grade. In reader, omit selections from Harrison and Bateman, pp. 72-73.

Written Arithmetic (State Advanced).—Review Fifth Grade work in fractions and general principles of division, p. 55-56. Take pages 89-98, inclusive, omitting examples 20 and 30, on p. 96, and examples 35 and 36, on p. 97, and 23 and 25, on p. 98; take up decimals, pp. 102-115, inclusive. Omit contracted multiplication and division of decimals; take pp. 119-121. Review factors and multiples, pp. 63-69. Civil Service Method of Addition, Course of Study, 1897-1898. Analysis of the inversion of divisor, p. 90, or a simpler one.

Spelling, Defining and Sentence-Making.—State Speller, first 75 lessons, and from reader. Teach defining of starred words in speller by use of dictionary. See instructions in Circular 10. For sentence-making, use starred words in speller and words at end of reading lessons.

Grammar and Composition.—State Advanced Grammar to Lesson 85, teacher to read the preface. Composition work, including excuses, invitations, letter-writing. See instructions to Third Grade for correction of compositions. Emphasize dictation and the correction of common errors. Emphasize use of synonyms, page 26. See instructions in Circular 10. Omit verbals.

Mental Arithmetic (Bailey).—Along lines of written arithmetic.

Geography.—State Elementary, pages 88 to 130, inclusive; map questions and recitation questions in descriptions. Bound important State of each group of the Union, and bound the groups; bounding to be examined by deputies; groups by advanced geography in hands of teacher. Other boundings not to be memorized.

Nature Study.—"Stories of Mother Earth," by H. W. Fairbanks, University of California, in hands of teacher. See "Notes."

Hygiene.—Chapter III. Omit questions in book; examination by deputies on essentials indicated by teacher.

History.—Harr Wagner's Pacific Coast History Stories in hands of teacher. Not more than 4 pages in blank books; class to be examined by deputies.

Writing.—Practice vertical. For practice work, see instructions to Third Grade and "notes." Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical, Book V.

Music.—Under direction of special teacher. See Instructions to Teachers.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers.

Physical Culture.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—By special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

SEVENTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading.—State Fourth Reader (Revised), Lessons 51 to 83, inclusive, teacher to be governed by instructions in Fifth Grade and Instructions to Teachers. "Vision of Sir Launfal," for reading and study; p. 5, Revised Fourth Reader. See Circulars 9 and 10 for review of Fall work. Transpose stanza commencing, "My golden spurs now bring to me," through "And into his soul the vision flew." Select the similes from the whole, and the metaphors from the first 45 lines, as they appear in the reader, and commit to memory three of each. Bryant's "Death of the Flowers," p. 103, Fourth Reader. Follow lines suggested in the book. Bring out the scenic pictures. Show their relation to the feeling aroused by the poem.

Spelling, Defining and Sentence-Making.—State Speller, from Lesson 75 to Lesson 183, and from Reader.

Word Analysis.—See "Addenda," this manual.

Grammar and Composition.—State Grammar, pp. 70-76, inclusive. Lessons 85 to 139, teacher to read preface. Letter-writing and descriptive composition. Besides composition work in the grammar, which should be emphasized, brief essays on current events may be added. Compositions should be discussed before the class, corrected and returned for copying. The copies should be collected for inspection. Have a paragraph of 6 to 10 lines written twice a week upon some subject connected with school work or daily life. Once a week this work should be done on the blackboard, subject to class criticism. Compositions of some thirty lines twice a month. Develop ideas of clearness, strength and beauty. Parts of speech to be distinguished readily, analyzing, diagraming, and verbals as per State Grammar. Teach these by both previous and present editions.

Arithmetic.—State Advanced. Review factors and multiples; pages 91 to 166, omitting pages 99, 100, 101, contracted multiplication and division of decimals, pp. 116, 117, 118, and surveyor's long and square measure. Omit stone and brick work, circular measure, longitude and time, reference tables, page 154, and metric system. Study pages 181 to 185, 204-209, inclusive. Practice addition; combinations.

Mental Arithmetic.—Along lines of written arithmetic.

Geography.—State Advanced, pp. 42-75.. Omit on p. 43 exercises in connection with ocean currents, thermal zones, barometric pressure, rainfall. Omit thought questions, pp. 47-51; statistics with open book. In 1901 Physical Geography will be considered by this class.

History.—State United States History to page 98, year 1750. "Struggle for Interior." Review by topics as far as possible. See Instructions to Teachers. Van Bergen's "Tales of Our New Possessions," in hands of teacher.

Civil Government.—State text-book in hands of teacher, Parts I, II, and III; oral examination by deputies on the text. Omit the questions. Dole's "The American Citizen," for reference.

Hygiene.—Essentials of Chapter IV. Oral examination by deputies on essentials indicated by teacher.

Writing.—Vertical. Practice right and left ovals, and other exercises usually found on the inside of covers to writing books. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical, No. VI.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers. Prang's Elementary Course of Art Instruction, Sixth Year Book.

Music.—Under direction of special teacher. See Instructions to Teachers. Natural Second Music Reader, completed from page 54, through page 84. Chart E.

Physical Culture.—Under directions of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—By special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

EIGHTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading and Literature.—Fall term, Longfellow's "Evangeline." Poem should be first read and explained by the teacher; pupils should then be taught to interpret, by individual reading, as much as time permit. Canto I for study as literature; select similes and metaphors; first stanza of "Prelude" for recitation. See Circulars 9 and 10. Spring Term—"Legend of Sleepy Hollow" to be read as above; first third to be studied as literature; for recitation, "Chambered Nautilus," by Holmes. Biographies of Longfellow, Irving, and Holmes, from Brander Matthews; birthplace, about the time he lived, profession or occupation of father, education of author, two other works and two contemporaries. For questions on "Evangeline" and "Sleepy Hollow," see 'Addenda,' this manual.

Spelling and Defining.—State Speller, Lessons 183 to 300. Omit sentence-making.

Word Analysis.—Swinton's New, pages 30 to 60, inclusive. See "Addenda." Emphasize defining and sentence-making.

Grammar and Composition.—State Grammar (Revised), Lessons 139 to 183. Parsing, diagraming and analyzing. Narrative and descriptive composition, once a month. See instructions, Seventh Grade. Continue paragraph work of the Seventh Grade. See "Notes," this manual.

Arithmetic.—State Advanced. Study metric system, pages 127, 128, 141, 145, 146; lumber and carpet measure; circular measure; longitude and time; pages 99, 100, 101, 168, 169, 170, 181 to 198, 204 to 220, inclusive. Practice rapid and accurate addition and multiplication. Omit partial payments and bank discount.

Mental Arithmetic.—(Bailey's.) In line with written arithmetic.

Geography.—Pages 42 to 75. Statistics with open book. Omit thought questions. Locate places mentioned in the descriptive portion.

History.—U. S. (State), pages 98 to 233. Conclusion of the war of 1812. Review by topics as far as possible.

Civil Government.—Questions from State History, page 187.

Hygiene and Physiology.—State Physiology in hands of teacher. Purchase optional with pupil. Effects of alcohol and narcotics on the human system. Chapter VI, p. 186, "Hygiene." Examination by deputies on essentials indicated by teacher.

Writing.—Business forms. For practice, see instructions to Seventh Grade. Ginn's Round-Hand Vertical, Book VII.

Drawing.—Under direction of supervising teacher. See Instructions to Teachers.

Music.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Physical Culture.—Under direction of special teachers. See Instructions to Teachers.

Sewing.—Taught by special teacher. For course, see Instructions to Teachers.

NINTH YEAR (OR GRADE).

Reading and Literature.—("Lady of the Lake," "Julius Caesar.") See "Notes" and "Addenda," this Manual; also circulars 9 and 10.

Spelling.—State Speller; lessons 300 to 408, inclusive.
Word Analysis.—Swinton; Latin Prefixes and Suffixes. See "Notes" and "Addenda."

Grammar and Composition.—State Grammar (revised), Lesson 183 to 264. Take "Appendix," page 275 to end of book. Much analysis and parsing. Descriptive, biographical and some argumentative composition. Review the book.

Spring Term—Pizarro, Cabrillo, Smith, Hudson, Puritans. Summary.

ORAL.

For examination by deputies:

1. For 200 years before North America and South America were known to exist, a splendid trade had been going on between Europe and the East Indies.

2. Ships loaded with metals, woods, and pitch, went from European ports to Alexandria and Constantinople, and brought back silks, cashmeres, spices, dye-wood, ivory, precious stones, and pearls.

3. This trade was carried on by means of boats and caravans from the Persian Gulf to Genoa and Venice.

4. New routes were now wanted.

5. The trade between Europe and Asia was in danger of being destroyed by the Turks. The day seemed near when all trade between the Indies and Europe would be ended. Men began to ask if it were not possible to find the ocean route to Asia.

6. The Portuguese tried to solve this difficulty by repeated attempts to reach India by water, but these attempts convinced them that the route would be too long for the purposes of commerce.

7. Then came the question: "Is there not a shorter route?" and Columbus tried to answer this.

8. The theory of the rotundity of the earth had been held by some of the ancient writers.

9. The ocean on which Columbus now embarked, and which in our time is crossed in less than a week, was then utterly unknown, and was well named "The Sea of Darkness."

Music.

By MISS ESTELLE CARPENTER, Supervising Teacher of Music.

"Singing, when well taught, is as important a subject for the school-room as any other branch; and it needs to be taught from the lowest to the highest grade in the ungraded school as in the graded school. It is needed for patriotism, morality, for health. It is needed to make discipline lighter, school attendance more regular, school management easier, study more interesting, and recitation more spirited."

"What the wings are to the bird, what the blossom is to the plant, what the juice is to the fruit, what the eye is to the face, what fervency is to the voice, singing is to the school!"

"In every child there is the germ of the power to appreciate the finest music and to express his appreciation with the voice."

"If proper training is begun before the voice is spoiled by bad usage, and before the natural instinct for that which is best has been destroyed, or replaced by the vulgar, the common, or the debasing, in music, every child is capable of being taught to express spontaneously in song the finer emotions—sympathy and love to his fellow-creatures and love to his Creator.

"In all undertakings it is best to begin well, and this is particularly true with regard to music. It is impossible to begin too early in childhood to teach that which is pure and high, and to awaken in the child's nature impulses that will stimulate the growth of worthy aspirations, that no room may be left for weeds.

"In the selection of songs, therefore, one cannot be too careful, both as to words and music. Go to our best composers and there will be found simple musical airs and suitable words.

"More pleasure and profit can be derived from the study of a small painting by a master hand, than can be found from studying a showy picture by an ordinary individual. So, in most all cases, the simple songs of the good composer are sweeter and more helpful than more pretentious selections from the ordinary musician. It is because the master composer thinks and feels at all times musically, and his slightest expression is full of music, while the ordinary composer catches but a glimpse of the wonderful art, and so his productions fall short of true worth. Therefore, in order that the child may be brought in contact with true music, the songs should be selected from the masters.

The songs of Country, Home, Nature and God appeal strongly to the child. Therefore such songs must be selected. They can be found in the following collections: "Children's Songs," by Reinecke; "Children's Songs" by Abt; "Songs by Gilchrist," arrangement of "Songs by Eleanor Smith;" "Songs of Child World," by Jessie Gaynor; books arranged by Wm. Tomlins; "Children's Songs," by Fred Bullard; "Children's Songs," by Frederic Root; "Children's Songs," by Neidlinger; "Children's Songs" by Emerson, and "Children's Songs" arranged by Max Spicker. Try to teach as many Folk Songs as possible. Such songs live from generation to generation, and the children should know them.

Be particular as to the manner of presenting a song. It is not always the teacher with the voice that obtains the best results. The teacher who understands the spirit of the song and who has the power of making the children realize the thought of the song readily obtains sweet singing from the children.

Some think that many songs should be taught to the children in a year, but no thought is given to the manner in which the songs are sung. During the first year of school life a dozen good songs rightly taught and sweetly sung are worth much more to a child than numbers of songs carelessly given and thoughtlessly sung. For if a song is sung carelessly, the voice is injured; for when there is no concentration of the mind while singing, the voice is either harsh or lifeless. The right quality of voice will not come, so the double harm is done.

Aside from the mental and moral discipline involved, aside from the wonderful power of singing as a restoration for wearied mind and body, there is one point, practical and peremptory, that must be considered first, last, and all the time. I refer to the preservation and cultivation of the voice. No one has a right to injure any part of the child's body. The utmost care must be taken to prevent harsh, loud, or nasal singing, and this can only be done by insisting on the free use of the breath and lips; by pitching the songs rather high; by insisting on true singing, and by governing the tempo of the song by its thought.

Correct habits formed in the first grades and insisted upon during the school life, will preserve and strengthen the pure tones. If correct habits are persisted in, who can tell how many superior voices will be developed in our public schools?

During the first year of school life the children should be taught good songs, how to breathe and sing correctly, and they should gain independence in hearing, thinking, and singing tones of the scale.

As the children are promoted they become more proficient in this work, and they are ready to take up the reading of music, as presented by the Natural Music Course.

The success of this course depends upon a most careful and persistent reference from books to charts and from charts to books. Material which seems too difficult without previous chart drill, seems very easy when taken in the proper way. At the end of each page of the charts are notes telling the pages in the books that are to be used in connection with the page of the chart.

Children learn to sing by singing; therefore, as little time as possible should be spent on the technical part of the subject. In this course only one difficulty is presented at a time. Explain each one as it comes. If the children in their singing observe rests, holds and ties, it is worth more than mere definitions of the same.

INSTRUCTIONS TO TEACHERS.

At first do not say much about the signatures; they are simply signs to show the position of doh. As the children progress they will notice what signs are used for the different positions of doh.

After the pupils readily sing the exercises by syllable, let the children sing the same exercises, using the syllables coo or lah. Have them beat time with a slight wave of the hand.

Do not fear chromatics. If they are presented gradually in different combinations, and are practiced faithfully, they can be learned. In fact, if these charts and books are used systematically the children cannot fail to learn to read. Notice all notes at the end of pages of both charts and books.

The classes that meet together for the singing lesson should be provided with the same book, irrespective of grades, so that both note work and songs can be taken together—that is, if fifth and sixth grades are advanced, and meet together, use Reader II. Otherwise use the Primer.

Principals should see that music is taught in all the classes.

Especially order Chart A for the third grades, if that chart is not in the building.

If the teacher finds her children are in advance of the work on the circulars sent out, do not put children back. Let them try to work up to the Course of Study.

Avoid the singing of an exercise so often by syllable that the children learn it by heart.

The secret of success in using these books is to begin at the beginning of the book and go over the work systematically, deriving help from the chart.

Those teaching the singing should be provided with a C pitch pipe. One can be obtained at any music store.

FIRST GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Erect, natural position of the body. Free use of the breath while singing, also free use of lips. Soft, sweet tones. Gentle exercise in humming. Vowels on sustained tones, and on the scales, beginning at the upper doh.

Tones.—Use hand signs. Tones of scales beginning with doh-doh, gradually adding soh-me-ray-te-fah-lah, always combining each one with the tones previously taken. Drill thoroughly on each interval before taking up a new one. Also sing scale down from different pitches. Let children skip the tones in the scale, using syllables coo-lah instead of doh-ray, etc.

Songs.—By rote. Softly and sweetly sing songs pitched quite high. Select good and simple songs, at least ten during the year.

If time, give a few very simple songs by means of the *hand signs, or by writing the syllables on the board.

SECOND GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Erect positions of the body. Free use of the breath while singing; free use of the lips. Soft, sweet tones. Gentle exercises in humming. Vowels on sustained tones and scales; also, combine o and ä on scales. All scales to begin on upper doh.

Tones and Note Work.—*Use hand signs. Review intervals of scale, in all combinations, using syllables doh-ray-me; etc., and also coo-laa.

Songs.—By rote. Softly and sweetly sing good songs pitched quite high; also give a few simple songs by means of the hand signs, or by writing syllables on the board.

*See First Grade.

THIRD GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Erect positions of the body. Free use of the breath while singing. Free use of the lips. Soft, sweet tones. Gentle exercises in humming. Vowels on sustained tones

$\bar{o}-\bar{a}-\bar{e}$
 $\bar{o}-\bar{a}-\bar{a}$

Also scales to be sung down and up, with vowels.

Tones and Note Work.—Vertical scale or hand signs. Also review intervals of scales in all combinations. Simple two-part exercises with hand signs and vertical scale. Use syllables do, ray, me, etc. Also coo and lah.

Teach names of lines and spaces a, b, c, d, e, f, g,

Study Chart A. Do not mention signatures. Simply show that doh has moved. Explain new points as encountered. Observe foot notes of chart. Be particular about the study of time introduced with this chart.

Songs.—By rote. Softly and sweetly sing good songs pitched quite high. Simple songs by means of *hand signs or vertical scale, or syllables written horizontally on board.

*See First Grade.

FOURTH GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Erect, natural positions of the body. Free use of the breath and lips while singing. Soft, sweet tones. Gentle and quick exercises in humming, and in the scales up and down, using various vowels and syllables. Sustained tones on $(\bar{o}-\bar{e}) (\bar{e}-\bar{a}) (\bar{o}\bar{o}-\bar{a}) (\bar{o}\bar{o}-\bar{o}-\bar{a}-\bar{a})$

Tones and Note Work.—On Vertical scale; practice the intervals in all combinations, using sharp of 4, called fe. Two parts on Vertical Scale. Sing also tones with syllables coo-lah.

Study Chart B, in connection with Primer; sing by note through page 11. The signature of Key of C should be learned. Other keys simply mention that doh has moved. Explain new points as encountered.

Songs.—At least one song from pp. 89-102, by note or rote.

FIFTH GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Erect, natural positions. Free use of breath and lips while singing. Soft, sweet tones. Gentle and rapid exercises in humming, and the scales up and down on vowels and syllables. Sustained tones

$(\bar{o}, \bar{e}) (\bar{o}, \bar{a}) (\bar{o}\bar{o}, \bar{a}) (\bar{o}\bar{o}, \bar{o}, \bar{a}, \bar{a}, \bar{e})$

In the latter exercise, the lips must be used very freely.

Tones and Note Work.—On vertical scale practice the intervals in all combinations introducing flat 7, or ta or sa. Sing also tones with syllables coo, laa. Primer, pp. 46-51. The signature of Key of C must be learned. Explain all new points encountered.

Songs.—By note or rote, to be sung sweetly, at least one from pp. 53-60-67.

SIXTH GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Erect position of the body. Free use of the breath and lips while singing. Soft, sweet singing. Gentle exercises and humming. Vowels on sustained tones, alone and in combination. Also rapid scale practice on different syllables.

Tones and Note Work.—Study through page 10 of Second Reader. The signatures of the Keys of C and D should be learned. Observe notes at the end of each page in Book and Chart.

Songs.—One from pp. 30-33, by note or rote, sweetly.

SEVENTH GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Same as Sixth Grade.

Note Work.—Study pp. 54, 55, 62, 63, 65, 66, in Reader II.

The signatures of the Keys of G, and E flat should be learned. Observe the remarks at the end of the pages of the books.

Songs.—Pp. 62, 63 65, by note and rote, with expression.

EIGHTH GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Breathing. Humming. Rapid Scale Practice, also in Reader IV. Vocal drills Ex. 1, 20, 37, 63.

Tones and Note Work.—Use vertical scale for interval practice. Study Reader IV through pages 5, 9, 12, 13, 14, 15, 20, 26, omitting pp. 6, 7, 10, 11 17, 18, 22, 25. Always use the page of chart indicated, and drill on those exercises before taking up ones in the book. The signatures of the following keys should be learned: Keys of C, D, E.

Songs.—By rote and note, with expression.

NINTH GRADE.

Vocal Drill.—Breathing. Humming. Rapid Major and Minor scale practice.

Tones and Note Work.—Use vertical scale for interval practice. Reader IV completed from page 89, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, to be used in connection with Chart G. Review signatures of Keys of C, D, E flat.

Songs.—By rote and note. In this grade pupils should acquire skill in the grasping of the musical thought, as they do the thought of the printed page. They should also be able to sing simple three-part exercises and songs by sight.

Drawing.

By Miss Katherine M. BALL, Supervising Teacher of Drawing.

TEACHERS' MEETINGS.

1. Teachers will assemble for instruction in Drawing at the beginning of each term. These meetings shall occupy a session of one hour and a half, the classes of the teachers called being dismissed at 2 P. M.

2. Board rules governing attendance and tardiness shall apply at these meetings. Principals will note this for their general report.

NOTICE OF MEETINGS.

Miss Ball will meet teachers for instruction in drawing, as follows:

Division I for teachers of Grades I and II will consist of those teaching south of Market street; and Division II, of those teaching in schools north of Market street. Meetings will be held in the Webster School building at 2:45. It is desired that teachers take their Outlines, the drawing books used in their respective grades, and be prepared to take notes.

SEATING AND LIGHTING OF ROOM.

Seats should be so arranged that the light may come from the left and rear of the room. Many class-rooms are so seated that the children sit and work in their own shadows, a condition which is very injurious to the eyes.

BLACKBOARDS.

Blackboards should have no permanent decorations that may interfere with their usefulness for general work. All explanatory work should be put on the front boards, as side boards are apt to give foreshortened views, which is detrimental to sight.

DUTIES OF PRINCIPALS.

1. Principals should supervise the drawing in their respective schools, and confer with the Director of Drawing concerning any unsatisfactory work.

2. They should see that all children are provided with the necessary material within a week from the opening of school, and that the drawing lessons begin promptly and be given regularly according to program.

3. Programs should be so arranged that the lessons in different classes do not conflict when different teachers find it necessary to use the same models.

4. Principals should be responsible for the condition of general materials, and make requisition for any that are not supplied to their schools. Every school should have one set of fifty cubes, one set of fifty cylinders, and a manual for each teacher's desk.

5. When a principal finds a teacher incapable of teaching drawing, he should detail another teacher from his school to do this work.

For drills in formal work, use the pencil. For free expression in appearance drawings; use any of the following mediums: pencil, charcoal, colored crayons, brush and ink or water colors.

Drill Exercises.—Study position of body, hand, arm, paper, pencil, and pencil holding. Drill on circles and straight lines, on the blackboard and on paper. Work for free, full-arm movement, for delicacy of touch and light, soft lines.

Appearance Drawing.—Draw available, useful, and beautiful objects. Make large, free, quick drawings, which represent expressions of seeing, rather than accurate drawings. Learn imaging and tracing around the contour of the object in the air with the pencil. Draw from leaves, flowers, grasses, fruits, and vegetables, each child working from his own object.

Draw from the pose to illustrate stories. Use drawing to illustrate other studies. Work for facility and not for accuracy.

Copy given blackboard drawings. Work for a degree of accuracy.

Picture Study.—Study the works of well-known artists who represent things of interest to child life. Coordinate this work with the language work.

[Schedule for Spring Term. For Fall Term, see Circular 10.]

(Limitations by class teachers.)

FIRST GRADE.

I. COLOR STUDY.

(a). Study Red, Yellow, and Blue.

II. TABLET AND STICK LAYING.

(a). Copy designs from given blackboard drawings.

(b). Make original arrangements for borders and center designs, and imaginative arrangements representative of common things.

III. PAPER FOLDING.

(a). Do exercises 9, 10, 11, and 6, 7, 8, of given notes.

IV. FORMAL DRAWING.

(a). Drill on Figs. 1 and 2 of given notes.

V. DRAWING FOR OBSERVATION. (To be done with either pencil or brush.)

(a). Simple foliage.

(b). Vegetables and fruits.

SECOND GRADE.

I. COLOR STUDY.

(a). Study Orange, Green, Violet.

II. PAPER FOLDING.

(a). Fold four-pointed star.

(b). Fold Greek cross.

III. STICK LAYING.

- (a). Study lengths of 1 to 6 inches. Make geometric figures, such as squares, oblongs, and triangles. Make simple borders and decorative arrangements from blackboard drawings.

IV. FORMAL DRAWING.

- (a). Drill on Figs. 3, 4, 5, of given notes.
- (b). Draw the four-pointed star.
- (c). Draw the Greek cross.

V. DRAWING FOR OBSERVATION. (To be done with either pencil or brush.)

- (a). Simple sprays and twigs.
- (b). Fruits and vegetables.

THIRD GRADE.

I. FORMAL DRAWING.

- (a). Review Exercises 1, 3, 5, and 7 of Supervisors' Notes.
- (b). Do Exercises 2 and 4 of Supervisors' Notes.

II. DRAWING FOR OBSERVATION. (To be done with either pencil or brush.)

- (a). Draw two simple sprays of leaves; twigs.
- (b). Draw a vegetable.
- (c). Draw fruit.

FOURTH GRADE.

I. FORMAL DRAWING.

- (a). Review exercises 1, 3, 5, and 7 of Supervisor's notes.
- (b). Do exercises 2, 6, and 8 of Supervisor's notes.

II. DRAWING FOR OBSERVATION. (To be done with either pencil or brush.)

- (a). Draw simple sprays of leaves, twigs, and flowers, on practice paper.
- (b). Draw from the objects in the drawing-book, on page 29, a group of fruits; on page 4, a vegetable; on page 5, a simple spray.

FIFTH GRADE.

I. FORMAL DRAWING.

- (a). Do Exercises 3, 5, 10, 11, and 12 of Supervisor's notes.

II. DRAWING FOR OBSERVATION. (To be done with either pencil or brush, in drawing book, from object.)

- (a). On page 3, foliage.
- (b). On page 23, a simple spray of leaves.
- (c). On page 24, some fruit.
- (d). On page 28, some vegetable.

Copy study of fruit on page 4.

SIXTH GRADE.

I. TECHNICAL PERSPECTIVE.

- (a). Draw on practice paper the cube facing below the level of the eye.

- (b). Draw on practice paper, several angular objects, based upon the cube, facing below the level of the eye, such as books, baskets, boxes.

11. DRAWING FOR OBSERVATION. (To be done with either pencil or brush.)

- (a). On practice paper, draw simple spray of leaves.
- (b). On practice paper, draw a group of vegetables.
- (c). On practice paper, draw a group of fruits.
- (d). In drawing book, on p. 8 and on p. 13, draw some angular object, based upon cube facing below the level of the eye, such as box, book, basket; on p. 11, a group of fruit.

SEVENTH GRADE.

I. TECHNICAL PERSPECTIVE.

- (a). Draw the cylinder, facing below the level of the eye.
- (b). Draw on practice paper several cylindrical objects, based upon cylinder, facing below the level of the eye, such as cup and saucer, tumbler, flower-pot, drum, waste basket, etc.
- (c). Draw on practice paper several angular objects, based upon cube, facing below the level of the eye, such as box, book, basket, etc.

II. DRAWING FOR OBSERVATION. (To be done with either pencil or brush.)

- (a). In drawing book, on page 5, some cylindrical object; page 6, some other cylindrical object; page 7, some angular object.

EIGHTH GRADE.

I. TECHNICAL PERSPECTIVE.

- (a). Study the cube turned at angle of forty-five degrees, below the level of the eye.
- (b). Draw the cube turned at angle of forty-five degrees, below the level of the eye.
- (c). On practice paper, draw several angular objects, based upon the cube turned at angle of forty-five degrees, below the level of the eye, such as box, book, basket.

II. DRAWING FOR OBSERVATION. (To be done with either pencil or brush.)

- (a). In drawing book, on p. 5, some cylindrical object; on p. 8, some angular object; on p. 9, spray of leaves.

NINTH GRADE.

I. TECHNICAL PERSPECTIVE.

- (a). Draw cube turned at angles of forty-five degrees, below level of the eye.
- (b). Study cube turned at angles of thirty degrees and sixty degrees, below the level of the eye.
- (c). Draw cube turned at angles of thirty degrees and sixty degrees, below the level of the eye.

- (d). On practice paper, draw an angular object, based upon cube turned at angles of thirty degrees and sixty degrees, below the level of the eye.
11. DRAWING FOR OBSERVATION. (To be done with either pencil or brush).
- (a). In drawing book, on p. 5 and p. 13, some angular object.

Notes.

I.

The July Schedule and the first Fall Schedule, 1899, should be discarded, Circulars 9 and 10 only, and this revision, being retained.

II.

The conception that pupils are being educated by classes, instead of individuals, is erroneous, especially in physical culture, vocal reading, and in singing. Little is prescribed in this manual in these subjects, so that each individual pupil may be specially drilled. This work will receive careful examination by deputies.

III.

For written June examinations in music by the Board, review Circular 10. First, second and third grades will be supplied with black-board work; third grades not having Chart A, will be given copies of the same.

IV.

Reading and singing are to be preceded by breathing exercises; pupils are not to sit during these periods. Constant attention should be given to chest development.

V.

The scholarship standing of schools for 1899-1900 will be determined from results of written examinations by direction of the Board of Education, combined with proficiency in vocal reading (embracing vocal culture and elocution with gestures), singing, writing, mental arithmetic, physical culture, etc., as reported by department of supervision.

VI.

Fall work, 1899, to be reviewed by schedule and directions in Circulars 9 and 10.

VII.

Written Board examinations in physiology and other nature study, and humane education, will not be held in June; and extensive blank-book work should not be given. Deputies will examine orally over ground designated by teacher. Not more than 4 pages of blank-book work in any subject.

VIII.

Teachers and pupils of all grades are to practice vertical writing. The receipt of papers in June, by the Board of Education, revealed uniform and perfect vertical writing throughout some schools, even including the ninth grades. Preceding all lessons in writing, five minutes practice should be required on right and left ovals, and other exercises usually found on the inside of covers of writing books. The letter or business form to Principal on report days should be accompanied by a copy done in, at first, three-quarters, and finally in half the time, to cultivate speed as well as correct principles, graceful forms, and legibility.

IX.

The list of "Literary Gems" appended is to be drawn upon, one or more per term, in each grade, for special study, memorizing, and individual and class reciting.

X.

In all grades, sentence-making should consist of a sentence defining the word and another properly using the word.

XI.

Eighteen hours per term should be given to music and drawing, respectively, in first, second, and third grades; nine hours in others, teachers to fix the length of periods; eighteen hours to sewing. That pupils, detained from any cause, shall receive the benefits presumed to arise, the five-minute daily opening exercise in patriotic and other songs may begin at 9:30.

XII.

Oral composition is to be cultivated in each grade.

XIII.

In word-analysis, methods and instructions in Circular 10 and the text-book.

XIV.

Grammatical and rhetorical analyses should not be made till selections are read for the thought and beauties therein contained. Vocal reading should be the means by which the pupil exemplifies literary interpretation. Sometimes, however, the teacher may prefer to read and explain the entire selection first, subsequently testing the pupil's grasp as above—analysis of the portion indicated in the schedule to come last. Prosody and all work manifestly advanced should be avoided.

XV.

Reading, all vocal exercises, and the following in arithmetic, may well be strengthened: Fractions in general, particularly in division of decimals; factors and multiples, analysis and proportion, quick operations. Algebraic method as to equations, letters, and symbols is to be pursued in interest and proportion.

XVI.

Annotated editions of literature for the 7th, 8th, and 9th grades may be procured in pamphlet form at 5, 10, and 15 cents a copy. Teachers are directed to require pupils to purchase pamphlet copies of Irving's Legend of Sleepy Hollow, and Shakespeare's Julius Caesar.

XVII.

The current school journals and magazines will be found in the teachers' library, Superintendent's office. Latest educational books and reports are being constantly added.

XVIII.

Board examinations of evening schools in June; none in January, this school year.

XIX.

In defining and sentence-making, the different uses of a word should be discussed. For example, in the eighth grade, the word "capital": Capital of the State, capital punishment, business capital. In the ninth, "stock": Bank stock, merchant's stock, grazier's stock, stock in cooking, etc.

XX.

Evening school teachers should carefully consider the day school "Addenda" and "Notes," as much applies to them also.

XXI.

The present revised edition of the Schedule of Work differs little from the July issue, except in making clear that which is designed for Board written examination and examination by deputies. The limitations are the results of recommendations of class teachers assembled, six typical schools at a time, on recommendation of Principals. Assembling by school instead of grades enables interchange of opinions and work, in a very satisfactory manner. Suggestions from any teacher or Principal, submitted in writing, will be filed for consideration in future issues. As many pupils enter the high schools, this schedule has been arranged in conjunction with high school heads of departments, with a view to lightening the high school work, as well as making the best possible preparation for business or general citizenship.

XXII.

Music and drawing conducted by special teachers; limitations fixed by class teachers.

XXIII.

The best education produces intellectual, moral and physical strength.

SPECIFIC DIRECTIONS TO TEACHERS.

More than one section of class at discretion of teacher, but no more recitations are to be heard in a day than will permit of thorough mastery and drill on each; pupils are not to be hurried for the sake of touching each subject every day; consider only enough daily to permit of thorough, enthusiastic work.

Every teacher should endeavor to be a good blackboard writer.

Classes should have sufficient daily review and drill.

In place of supplementary reading in grammar grade classes, teachers will make use of the school library.

In all schools teachers may be assigned by the Principal to music classes according to their abilities in the subject. The voices of boys from thirteen to fifteen years of age inclusive, must not be strained.

Public reading and speaking, parliamentary usage and debating, in upper grades, in connection with Civil Government.

Fourth to ninth grades, inclusive: A business letter and one commercial form, such as an order for goods, a bill or a receipt, from pupils to Principals, on report day, and one composition or letter of friendship to Principals between report days, spelling and punctuation to be especially attended to. These are intended for the inspection of the Principal, the teacher to attend to the marking and correction of the papers.

Calisthenic and breathing exercises, twice daily.

Dole's "The American Citizen" in hands of teachers of seventh and eighth and ninth grades.

Patriotism, morals, manners and humane instruction in all grades at a set time, weekly.

The day's exercises should begin with song. Appropriate selections will be found in the back part of the prescribed music books.

Board or Principal's examinations at close of term; Board examinations at end of year; visits by Superintendent and Deputies during term.

Provide a time daily for individual instruction, if possible. This will be of especial benefit to ambitious pupils who are behind in their class work.

In the grammar grades supplementary reading has been diminished, that reading may be better taught and literature more thoroughly analyzed.

In all grammar grades defining must accompany spelling and reading.

Annual promotion of classes; but Principals may put back incapable pupils, after consulting with class teachers, at any time during the year.

Should injury to desks, or other annoyance occur where day and evening classes occupy the same room, the Principals should confer to fix responsibility.

Teachers are not to relax watchfulness over their classes by visiting associate teachers during session or by work on examination papers or registers. The closest attention to discipline is expected. [Vide "Rules."]

Correlation or concentration should be constantly in the minds of the teachers. For instance, no zealous teacher would fail to bring into the geography lesson facts from the history. In geography, also, current events will be drawn upon, that the pupil's stock of general information should be of constant growth and ready use.

That part of the State Law which pupils should know should be read from the register once a month.

In every recitation insist upon an erect position, distinct articulation, and correct expression.

Insist on all written work being done neatly, the pencils being sharp and of sufficient length.

Books and papers should always be placed in good order in desks.

The use of pencil tablet paper is recommended in place of slates.

Corporal punishment should not be administered in the High Schools, nor upon girls in any schools of the Department. Such punishment must be administered by Principals, by Vice-Principals having charge of boys' yards, or by teachers of primary classes, with consent of Principals, and shall only be resorted to in extreme cases, when other means fail to maintain obedience. No excessive, cruel, or unusual punishment shall be allowed.

All modes of punishment calculated to degrade a pupil, and the use, on the part of any teacher, of discourteous language towards pupils or parents, are expressly forbidden.

Every classroom should be supplied with a national flag, and the same should be saluted every morning. On Monday mornings the salute should be accompanied by the pledge: "I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the Republic for which it stands—one people, one language, one flag."

Avoid the use of irritating language. The sarcastic teacher is likely to have insolent pupils.

As far as possible avoid placing a pupil in a position where he will be tempted to tell a falsehood.

Give few commands, but enforce those made.

Make no rash promises, but keep those made.

Make the schoolroom attractive and pleasant.

Widest latitude to teachers in making up programs and following methods, but a copy of the program must be written in the register and another kept posted in the schoolroom.

Home work: Third grade, half hour; fourth, fifth, and sixth grades, one hour; seventh and eighth grades, one and one-half hours; ninth grade, two hours. These are the least limits. Enough time should be devoted to secure sufficient preparation for thorough work the next day. Some will not require as much time as specified; others, more, at times.

The twenty minutes allowed for recess must include the time necessary for leaving and returning to rooms and all preparations and exercises incidental thereto. Preparations for dismissal must not be made until five minutes of the hour set for the same. (See "Rules of the Board.")
